

Pre-school likely to end; GC faculty is trimmed by 28

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

"Money makes the world go around."

And the lack of money curtails educational programs, such as the Granite City district's pre-school instruction, it was acknowledged at Tuesday night's Board of Education meeting.

Unless the current federal funding outlook changes markedly, Supt. B. J. Davis said, he will recommend ending the pre-school at the end of the 1980-81 year. In another cost-cutting action, the board approved his recommendation to honorably dismiss 28 teachers this summer.

The 28 "represent some outstanding talents," he said. "We hope to be able to return some of these to teaching positions prior to the beginning of the school year, through attrition. If everything follows the normal procedure, we undoubtedly will be able to bring others back after the school year begins."

A public hearing was conducted on the dismissals with 30 persons attending it Tuesday evening. American Federation of Teachers Local 743 and citizens were given an opportunity to respond, but did not.

Two teacher retirements and two faculty resignations were accepted by the board.

Two of the three junior high school assistant principals, William Fever and Gordon Galbreath, will be transferred to teaching positions in 1981-82, with Assistant Principal Nancy Marti moving from Graple to Coolidge and adding district-wide testing duties to her other responsibilities.

Supt. Davis said the teacher dismissals require a hearing "if there are economic reasons involved. The recommendations we are making are based not only on finances but on our continuing enrollment decline, which is now starting to be felt at the high school level."

The 28 dismissed consist of nine high school faculty members (South seven and North two), two junior high school teachers (one at Coolidge and one at Prather) and 17 elementary instructors (three each at Emerson and Nameeki, two each at Prohardt and Logan, and one each at Johnson, Marshall, Maryville, Parkview, Webster, Wilson and a Lake-Niedringhaus combination position).

Granite City public schools have been losing about 400 students a year due to population and age patterns, the superintendent noted, adding:

"Last year at this time, when we had an enrollment of 10,776, we honorably dismissed 15 staff members. We projected we would have 10,550 students in the fall of 1980, and our sixth-day total was 10,586.

"Since then and throughout this school year, we have continued to decline. As of Feb. 27, 1981, our student population was 10,331. We are estimating that our enrollment this fall will be 10,130.

"It is apparent that the decline in the number of students will continue for some time, and we will continue to look at the staff needs.

"It is extremely unfortunate that these dismissals are necessary. We gave the names to the building principals March 10 so that they might discuss this with each of the 28 prior to tonight's public action."

One teacher present at the hearing said later it is the fifth consecutive year he has been honorably dismissed due to school closings or other faculty reductions here. Those on the dismissal list, in general, have six years' service or less in Community Unit District No. 1.

A resolution adopted by the board cited Illinois School Code Section 24-12 as the basis of the hearing. Procedural rules were outlined by Attorney William Beatty Jr.

A second resolution reclassified Fever and Galbreath as teachers.

Supt. Davis said Nancy Marti will continue her present data processing duties related to the three junior high schools, as well as helping administer Coolidge, the largest of the junior highs. The testing work has been handled by Fever in the past.

The superintendent said the net decrease in faculty size is expected to be less than 28. The board endorsed a staff size "adequate to meet educational purposes."

Some secondary teachers are believed likely to "bump" sixth grade teachers and assume elementary posts for the coming school year.

The tentative plan to end Granite City's pre-school was presented Monday night to the Title I Parent Advisory Council and was favored by that group in a 15-3 vote.

Davis on Tuesday night cited a detailed study made by Dale C. Rea, assistant to the superintendent, and also quoted a letter from Illinois Education Supt. Donald G. Gill indicating that "virtually every program administered by the U. S. Department of Education is reduced by 25 percent for the 1981-82 school year under

City salaries increased; aldermen reject hike

Whoever is elected mayor of Granite City April 7 will receive an annual salary of $28,000, plus $5,100 for expenses, and the next city clerk and treasurer will earn $25,000, the city council decided Tuesday night. The per diem pay of aldermen will not be increased, it was determined.

Under the pressure of a March 30 deadline to set the salaries, the aldermen caucused for an hour before the 8 p.m. city council meeting, at which their decisions were announced.

Salaries also were granted for the township supervisor and assessor, but the aldermen decided not to vote themselves a raise for the next four years.

Under state law, the salaries for those officials to be elected April 7 must be decided by March 30 and the salaries cannot be changed during the four-year terms.

The new salary for the mayor is $33,500 more than the current salary, but alderman Mac Warfield of the Sixth Ward explained that since there has not been a raise in four years and will not be another for four more years, the increase represents only a 1.1 percent increase per year for the mayor.

In addition to his salary, the mayor receives $2,100 a year automobile allowance, $1,800 a year for expenses and $1,200 a year as liquor control commissioner, a total of $3,100.

During the vote on the mayor's raises, Alderman Warren Deatur, a candidate for mayor, abstained, and Alderman Paul Ray Bowler voted no, but the measure passed 10 to 1. Aldermen, Glen Spankle and Earl Baker were absent.

In granting annual raises of $4,525 to the city clerk and treasurer, the council took away their former $600 a year expense allowances for a net increase of $3,925 a year. They will receive $2,063 per month, or $25,000 a year.

The township assessor's salary was increased from $20,000 to $25,000, but his expense allowance of $1,200 a year was taken away for a net raise of $3,800 a year.

The township supervisor will receive $8,400 a year for his part-time job plus $100 a month for expenses, the council decided. The salary represents a $200 a month increase and the expense allowance was unchanged.

Alderman Bowler voted against all of the pay increases.

The aldermen unanimously agreed not to increase their pay for the next four years. Each alderman receives $255 a month, including their expense allowance. They agreed not to change their $75 per meeting pay for regular

Arrest ten near school

The arrests yesterday of 10 youths allegedly smoking, selling or possessing marijuana behind Granite City High School South should serve as "a warning to all students that they are violating the law and these acts must come to an end," according to authorities yesterday following the arrests.

The announcement also warned that the investigation of marijuana and drug use behind the high school will be ongoing "until the present problem decreases."

Five juveniles and five young men were arrested behind the school, near State Street, between 10:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Wednesday and were charged with possessing cannabis. Of those over 16 arrested, only one was a student.

Non-students arrested were Guy W. Carroll, 19, of 2732 National Ave., Russell J. Pearman, 19, of 1637 Delmar Ave., Greg B. Reeves, 17, of 2142 Cleveland Blvd., and Robert G. Voegelé, 18, of 3188 Aubrey Ave. The only student among the over 16 age group was Brian K. Richardson, 17, of 8957 Dale Ave., police said.

The names of the juveniles were not released under juvenile privacy laws. They were released to their parents on notices to appear before juvenile authorities.

Richardson, Reeves and Voegelé were released on $35 cash bond. Carroll and Pearman were taken before Circuit Judge Charles Chapman in Granite City, pleaded guilty to possessing marijuana and were fined $300 plus court costs each.

The police release notes that large groups of students and non-students have been observed gathering on State Street near the school daily before school and during lunch periods and numerous arrests have been made for marijuana possession in recent years.

Local police and South administrators cooperated in efforts to halt the activities and five undercover agents of the Metropolitan Enforcement Group of Southwestern Illinois (MEGI) were asked to assist in the operation, according to the release.

The area behind the school was placed under surveillance by MEGSI agents and Granite City police cooperated in making the arrests. In addition to the MEGSI agents, two detectives and most of the patrol division on duty at the time were involved in the operation, it was explained.

The arrests culminated two-weeks of planning by the Granite City police and school authorities. Additional arrests are anticipated if the use of marijuana and illegal drugs continues near the school, authorities pledged.

Chouteau ups salaries for 4-year span

by DONNA KIMBRO
of the Press-Record

Salary increases amounting to $44,526 to be dispersed over a four-year period for Chouteau Township officials was approved Monday night by the Chouteau Township Board of Trustees. This figure does not reflect the per diem for trustees, that was also increased.

The supervisor's salary, which is set at $6,050 was increased to $6,600 with $500 as treasurer for the road and bridge fund, for the four-year period.

In other salary hikes, the assessor who now receives $7,000 will be given an additional $1,000 the first year, $1,000 more the second year, and another $1,000 for each of the remaining two year period bringing his annual salary to $10,000 at the end of four years.

An increase for the collectors salary will reflect $7,250 at the end of four years as compared to his current wage of $6,600.

The town clerk's salary is set at $3,300 now and will increase to $3,630 the first year, $3,992 for the second year, $4,392 the third year and $4,831 on the fourth year.

The highway commissioner's salary jumped from $7,495, the present salary, to $15,000 per year showing a net increase of $30,020 over the four year period.

Trustees now receive $44 per diem and they will be advanced to $50 per diem in conjunction with the financial adjustments.

In other business presented at the semi-monthly meeting it was announced a mosquito control workshop will be held at the Ramada Inn in Westport today at 8:30 a.m.

The town board voted to pay their share, which amounted to $511 to SIMPAC.

May lose more school funds

By VALERIE EVENDEN
of the Press-Record

Honorable dismissal notices were hand delivered Wednesday to 40 teachers in the Venice School District with 17 years seniority or less, and copies were sent to their homes by registered mail the same day.

The notices were authorized by the Venice Board of Education at its meeting Monday night.

A public hearing, preceding the regular session, was attended by 11 faculty members who were concerned about the policy of issuing honorable dismissal letters. Several addressed the board.

Superintendent Robert Vickers said such notices have been sent each spring "ever since the school district's financial situation began deteriorating 10 years ago."

Most of the notices have been rescinded in previous years, many prior to the end of the current school year, he said.

By law, the school districts are required to notify teachers of their dismissal within 60 days of the end of the school year.

"This year, I believe there is greater cause for alarm with the probable loss of some Title VI funds," the administrator said.

"We could conceivably lose all our Title VI funding or a good part of it, judging by the present mood in Washington, as well as in the rest of the country."

The Venice District has received a total of $153,000 in Title VI funds for the current school year, plus $49,000 in Title I funds.

"Venice faces the possible loss of between $97,000 and $100,000 in these funds, which includes the funds for salaries of five long-term teachers," Supt. Vickers said.

Such a loss of funds in the Title VI program would displace the five present teachers, all of whom are at or near the top level on the salary schedule.

In that event, it is expected that six faculty members who are at a lower salary level could not be rehired, the administrator said.

Title VI funds provide remedial programs in math and reading and are made available to the Venice School District and other districts under the Emergency School Aid Act.

Initially, the funds were provided to certain districts as a means of desegregation assistance, to help

Congressman Melvin Price (left) of this district, chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, speaks informally with Secretary of Defense Caspar Weinberger (center) and Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, General David C. tolerate further delays in such major defense programs as a replacement manned bomber for the aging B-52 fleet, and the MX missile system. Rep. Price said Congress will insist on decisions on these and related national security matters in the near future. In his reply to the committee, Sec. Weinberger pledged cooperation with Congress in meeting the national defense goals outlined by Price.

A one-day workshop on child abuse will be held at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, April 4.

Sponsored by the Office of Continuing Education and the Rape and Sexual Abuse Care Center, the workshop is scheduled in Meridian Hallroom in the University Center from 9 a.m. until 3:30 p.m.

Advance registration (before March 25) is $20 and will include lunch. Registration at the door will be $30.

Session leaders will be Ann Burgess, professor and director of nursing research at Boston University, and Nicholas Groth, director of the Sex Offender Program at Somers State Prison for the Connecticut Department of Corrections.

Mrs. Burgess has served as a consultant to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare's National Center on Child Abuse and Neglect and to the psychiatric nursing educational branch of the National Institute of Mental Health.

She is also an instructor for the Executive Training Program in Advanced Criminal Justice Practices and an instructor at the FBI Academy in Quantico, Va. Groth has extensive clinical experience in working with sexual offenders against children in Massachusetts and Connecticut. Along with Dr. Sgro and Linda Holstrom, both Groth and Mrs. Burgess are co-authors of a book, "Sexual Assault of Children and Adolescents."

Groth is the author of "Men Who Rape," and also the co-author of "Rape: Crisis and Recovery" and "The Victim of Rape: Institutional Reactions."

The program will focus on the physical, psychological and social effects of rape on children and adolescents. The problems of child pornography and sex rings involving children also will be addressed.

The workshop should be of special interest to mental health personnel, social workers and counselors, teachers, clergy members of the medical profession, therapists, law enforcement personnel and other professionals who work with child sexual abuse victims, offenders, and their families, a spokesman said.

Additional information may be obtained by contacting the SIUE Office of Continuing Education at 1-692-3210.

Nursing service is a family tradition

By VALERIE EVENDEN

Two Madison brothers are making fine progress in their chosen careers, it was learned this week. Both are actively engaged in the field of nursing and health services, an area of interest to almost all members of their family.

David R. Winkmeier, 24, has accepted a full-time position as a nurse in the Intensive Care Unit at St. Mary's Hospital in East St. Louis.

His brother, Staff Sergeant Michael Winkmeier, U. S. Air Force, has been promoted to his present rank while serving in nursing administration at Elmendorf AF Base in Anchorage, Alaska, it was announced this week.

Both are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Winkmeier, 1818 Second St., Madison.

David, a 1976 graduate of Madison High School, recently graduated with a bachelor's degree in nursing from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Prior to accepting the permanent position, he was employed part-time at St. Mary's Hospital.

He is planning to return to school next year to attain the degree of nurse anesthetist.

Michael, 22, has been stationed in Alaska for the past two years. He joined the service four years ago and is expected to make it a career.

The serviceman's wife is the former Sharon Poos of Edwardsville, a nurse. She is with her husband in Alaska and is employed at an Anchorage hospital.

They are the parents of a son, Erik, who celebrated his first birthday on March 11.

The mother of David and Michael is the former Helen Morganroth, a licensed practical nurse. She is employed at the Madison County Nursing Home in Edwardsville.

Another son of the Winkmeiers is John M., 25, a licensed practical nurse, who like his mother is on the staff at the Madison County Nursing Home.

The Madison couple also has three daughters. Roberta Winkmeier, 27, is a registered nurse in charge of pediatrics at St. Mary's Hospital in East St. Louis.

The younger daughter, Mrs. Alvina Apponey, 19, will start nurse's training in April at Belleville Area College.

The Winkmeiers' youngest child, also a daughter, is 14-year-old Hope, a freshman student at Madison High School. Hope has not yet indicated whether she plans to follow in the family tradition of entering the health services field.

The father, Robert, works in a different field. Until a recent layoff, he was employed for 13 years as a slab yard crane operator at Granite City Steel.

Hearing on shorthand certification

Prospective certified shorthand reporters may be able to skip the preliminary step in the examination for Illinois licensure if they can show they are already proficient.

And, if they have let their licenses lapse for more than five years, they may have two alternatives to get them restored without retaking the examination.

Those possibilities are incorporated in proposed new rules and regulations for administration of the Illinois Certified Shorthand Reporters Act.

The rules will be the subject of a public hearing at 11 a.m. Monday, March 30, in the offices of the Illinois Department of Registration and Education on the 17th floor at 55 E. Jackson Blvd., Chicago.

Announcing the hearing, acting Director Gary L. Clayton said the purpose of proposing new regulations is to organize and update present rules and to "clarify the department's policies and procedures" for administering the licensing law.

Awards for study abroad

Two expense-paid awards for one year of study abroad are available to outstanding young people in the 24-county area of west central and south central Illinois through Rotary International.

These educational awards for the 1982-83 academic year may be for graduate study or undergraduate study.

In addition, it is possible for individuals from the same area to be considered for national grants for similar overseas technical training, special overseas advanced work for teachers of the handicapped, and journalism training abroad.

Rotary sponsors the education awards to foster international understanding. The Grants may be used at schools in any of the 154 countries where there are Rotary clubs.

Round-trip air transportation, all tuition and educational fees and supplies, room and board, and some funds for educational travel in the country where each winner is studying are included in the award.

Applications are available from all Rotary clubs. The clubs are to forward worthy applications to the district Rotary governor by April 1.

Applicants for these two graduate and undergraduate awards compete only against other applicants in the 24-county area of Rotary District 646, not statewide or nationwide.

No Rotarian or his relative is eligible for consideration.

city council meetings the first, third and fourth Tuesday of each month or their $10 per meeting pay when they are seated as the town board of trustees the first and third Tuesdays of each month. Their expense allowance of $50 a month also will continue unchanged for four years for those elected April 7.

Alderman Charles Douglas of the First Ward supported the raises, saying the salaries should not be "so small that only the rich man can run for these offices," and said the raises keep the pay of city officials in Granite City in line with the pay received in other communities.

Douglas, who is a candidate for re-election, contended that approving the pay raises at the last meeting before the election was "poor timing," and said it would have been preferable to consider the raises earlier.

He also said of the raises, "I think they are really small, if the public would look at them over eight years." In other business, due to the election, the date of the next regular meeting was changed from election day to Wednesday, April 8. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. and will be held on the third floor of city hall, since another activity already was scheduled in the township building.

governor was read noting an office will be set up in Granite City for inter agency cooperation. A notice from Senator Sam Valdabene was also read in which he said Senate Bill 31 regarding annexations without voting will be in committee Tuesday. Supervisor Walter

Sparks was advised to attend the meeting and testify in hopes of getting the bill out of committee. In October and November of 1979 Chouteau Township officials met to discuss ways in which the township could attempt to block the annexation by Granite City and Granite City Township of a prime industrial area west of Route 3. During the Oct. 25 meeting the Chouteau Board asked that the township officials group urge the General Assembly to support legislation prohibiting coextensive townships from taking land from other townships without a referendum.

a construction engineer; and Marc Vaes, a steel performance laboratory director. The visitors this week toured Granite City Steel, American Steel Foundries and the KMOX studios. After addressing Tuesday's Rotary luncheon at the YMCA, they followed a schedule that included the Tri-City Port and Foreign Trade Zone, S. M. Wilson construction firm, Laclede Steel, Olin and the new Alton lock and dam project. They will be in Illinois until April 25.

GC plans to quiz county highway superintendent about Maryville

Madison County Superintendent of Highways Lester Miller will receive a special invitation to attend the next meeting of the Granite City Council April 8 and explain the progress his department and the state highway department are making in correcting deficiencies in Maryville Road. Alderman Warren Decatur of the Fourth Ward, a candidate for mayor, told the council Tuesday night that he drove along Maryville Road this week and noticed that the pothole problem in the relatively new concrete roadway is increasing rapidly and "getting worse all the time." The northbound lanes, which were poured in August, 1978, are deteriorating rapidly while the southbound lanes, not poured until October of that year, are in good condition. Samples from the potholes were taken early this winter by officials of the Illinois Department of Transportation for testing, particularly aggregate found at the bottom of each hole, which may indicate impurities in the concrete, Miller said in December. City Engineer Monroe Brewer said he has been in touch with the county highway department and they said the state has not completed its testing. Mayor Paul Schuler reminded the aldermen, "We have the assurance from the county board and IDOT that once they have found the cause and worked out a solution, they would do everything in their power, including financial, to correct it."

"The chairman of the county board (Nelson Hagmann of Granite City) assured me last week that wouldn't change," Schuler concluded. Alderman Mac Warfield, chairman of the council's street and alley committee, made a motion that Miller be asked to attend the April 8 city council meeting to discuss the progress on correcting the problem.

Named to head support services

Appointment of Dr. Luther D. Statler, 46, as director of supporting services at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville was announced here Wednesday by President Earl Lazerson. Dr. Statler, who presently serves as assistant to the vice president and provost at the university, will assume his new responsibility on March 30. The appointment is subject to confirmation by the SIU Board of Trustees. As director of supporting services, Statler is the second principal administrative officer appointed by President Lazerson since plans for reorganization of the university were announced in July 1980. Dr. James R. Buck was named director of development and public affairs, and searches are currently under way to fill the three remaining line officer administrative positions: vice president and provost, director of personnel services, and director of planning and resource management. Units which will report to the director of supporting services include: Auxiliary Services, Security Services, Plant Services, Business Services and University Center and Student Housing Services. During the interim, these units have reported to James F. Metcalf, acting vice president for business affairs. In the reorganization, the only vice-presidential office which will be retained is the Office of Academic Affairs and Student Services, which will be directed by the vice president and provost.

Partney criticizes use of revenue sharing for salaries

Dan Partney, candidate for mayor of Granite City, blamed Mayor Paul Schuler this week for allowing the city to use most of its federal revenue sharing grant funds for current expenses and salaries, rather than using the funds to improve the community.

He told a gathering of residents this week, "Unfortunately for its citizens, Granite City is one of the few cities which has chosen to spend revenue sharing primarily on current expenses."

"The mayor's office is where the buck stops and the current administration must take full responsibility for the financial damage it has done," Partney said. He contended that Carbondale, East Alton, Highland and Wood River use 100 percent of their federal revenue sharing for capital improvements while Granite City uses 56 percent for payroll.

"The intent of the act is to allow cities to finance capital projects, such as new sewers, police cars, fire trucks, street construction or health facility construction," Partney told the gathering.

He said he fears that if Congress ends revenue sharing, the city will have to raise taxes to meet the current payrolls. "Considering the mayor's track record, that would be inevitable," he said.

Partney pledged that, if elected, he will change the system so that 100 percent of the federal revenue sharing funds received by the city are devoted to capital improvements.

GARAGE BURGLARIZED

A burglar who pried open a garage door at the Richard Nelson residence, 2020 Missouri Ave., took items valued at $300, including a toolbox, tools, sockets, wrenches and eyeglasses, police were told Monday.

Bloodmobile here Thursday, April 2

A spring bloodmobile will be held Thursday, April 2, from 2 to 7 p.m. at St. John's Lutheran Church, 2001 St. Clair Ave. This extra date has been set to provide groups an opportunity to complete their yearly goals, according to Jo Ann Barnett, co-chairman of the project. Type A blood is in good supply at the present time but all other types are needed, especially Type O+ and O-, she added.

The annual summer bloodmobile will be held July 6, 7 and 8. During the summer months there is usually a great need for all blood types.

Anyone giving on April 2 will be able to give again in July if they desire to do so, Mrs. Barnett noted.

Rail location hearing tonight

Rail traffic, overpasses, switching yards, noise and many other factors concerned with railroads will be the topics as the St. Louis Metro Area Rail Gateway Enterprise (MARGE) holds a public hearing in the Granite City Township Hall, 2060 Delmar Ave., at 7 tonight.

MARGE is studying the removal of rail tracks and yards on the East St. Louis riverfront and the replacement of the facilities with larger yards and new rail alignments.

The project could have a major impact on the Quad-City area as the Madison yard is planned for expansion and rail traffic through this area could increase greatly, studies show. Grade separations, including underpasses and overpasses, could be necessitated by the rail relocations and are included in the MARGE study, as are the potential effects of any changes on air pollution, noise pollution, traffic and other factors.

Public input is being encouraged so the planners are aware of the desires and needs of the people who are likely to be affected by any changes.

Tonight's meeting will begin with an explanation of the program, drawings and exhibits from 7 to 8, followed by a one-hour presentation on the status and progress of the project.

Officials of Granite City, townships have indicated Nameoki and Chouteau they will attend.

50 Years Ago

Members of the Police and Fire Departments were able to cash all their pay checks Wednesday morning following a special session of the city council the night before which resulted in the borrowing of $5,000 from the Public Library funds and the transferring of $5,000 from the Interfund Fund of the city. Salaries of 13 police department members, 14 fire department employees, city garbage collector and city hall building janitor will be paid up to date out of the replenished funds. When this is done, the funds will be exhausted with the exception of about $700. Including the last pay on March 14, each policeman and fireman had received four checks for which there were no funds in the bank. They totaled in the neighborhood of $8,400.

The annual drive for funds to carry on Boy Scout work in the Tri-Cities will begin Monday, April 13, and will continue through the week until a goal of $7,500 has been reached, it was announced by Executive W.R. Webb at headquarters yesterday afternoon.

In past years, the campaigns have been conducted during January, but because of the lack of employment this year's drive was continued until April, two months before the summer camping season opens at Camp Rankin in the Ozarks.

Drilling operations are underway at the Granite City canal harbor to determine underground conditions at the site, the Bi-State Development Agency reported. Milton Kinney, agency engineer, said the work is being conducted to make engineer construction cost estimates for a new grain elevator at the harbor which is being contemplated.

The drillers were unable to report the depths to be reached in the tests, but last Friday samples were being taken at 35 feet.

With the establishment of policy and appointment of subcommittees, the newly-formed Community Committee for Youth prepared for action last Thursday night and now is ready to begin its investigation of liquor and obscene literature sales to minors in the Quad-City area, it was announced by the chairman, Harold Hotson.

Subcommittees formed during the meeting have been assigned the duties to investigate sales of liquor, narcotics, obscene literature and pornography; to investigate sale of objectionable comic and horror books; and to strive for supervised recreational facilities.

The pace of Horseshoe Lake State Park acquisition is creating severe problems for lake property owners, Williams Nichols, one of the principal owners, advised Illinois Conservation Director Henry Barkhausen in a letter yesterday. Nichols related that "the General Assembly voted to acquire 1,700 acres of the lake as a park over a year ago. At a meeting of many affected residents, Mr. Dan Malkovich (former acting conservation officer) presented a map of 4,000-plus acres which he said would be acquired."

"As of March 19, I was advised that guidelines had never been established for the 1,700 acres. This leaves residents of 2,300 acres to worry as to whether or not they are to be acquired and evicted. They are reluctant to make improvements on their property and are resentful of the present administration for its inaction."

'Women and Welfare' topic of cable show

WIS Productions, a local television company, today premiered its monthly program "Women in Struggle" on the Southwestern Cable TV community access channel.

The premiere showing was at noon today with repeat showings Monday, March 30, and Wednesday, April 1, at 7 p.m.

"Women in Struggle," an interview series, is hosted by Barbara Ryan, a Granite Cityan, will present issues of importance to women and the community and, on occasion, provide musical and other types of entertainment.

The first program deals with the subject, "Women and Welfare," and features state Rep. Wayne Young of East St. Louis and Mrs. Norma Mendoza, action vice-president of the Illinois International Organization for Women.

Venice hearing is set March 31

A public hearing will be held by the Venice Town Board at the township offices, 1502 Fifth St., March 31, to obtain public comments on the proposed uses of revenue sharing funds in the annual budget.

The meeting will be held at 7:45 p.m. All interested citizens are invited to attend the meeting. All persons attending will have the right to provide written or oral comments and suggestions regarding the use of federal revenue sharing funds.

Group testifies on annexation bill

Senate Bill 31, involving township annexation, sponsored by Senator Sam Vadalabene at the request of local township officials, was heard and testimony taken by the Senate Local Government Committee in Room A-1 of Stratton Building, Springfield.

A number of local township officials were in attendance. Testifying in favor of the bill were Senator Sam Vadalabene; George Miller, executive director of Township Officials of Illinois; Walter Deck Sparks, supervisor of Chouteau Township; Fred Finch, representing Foster Township; and John Gallagher, Benton Township. Opposition to the bill was given by members of the Municipal League and representatives of Peoria and Macomb.

The bill was approved for second reading on promise of Senator Vadalabene, that he would work with the opposition and township officials to make the bill agreeable to both sides. Sparks said it was agreed among those who need the bill passed, that it is going to be a tough battle to get the bill approved. "We all have to work with our representatives and senators to support Vadalabene, because the Municipal League has a lot of clout and lobbyists in Springfield," he said.

Fire wakes traveler

Gerald Burnett, who was staying at the Illini Motel, 1100 N. Grand Ave., last night, awoke at 4:40 a.m. today to find his room full of smoke and his suitcase on fire. Unable to locate the door in the smoke, he dialed the motel office for assistance and an employee opened the door and pulled the burning suitcase outside.

Granite City firemen removed the smoke from the room. It is believed the fire caught fire from the nearby heater, which was set at the maximum temperature, firemen said.

The loss was estimated at $150.

KIRKPATRICK FIRE

Fire caused an estimated $6,300 damage to the apartment of Connie Robbins, 1207 Kirkpatrick Homes, at 3:25 p.m. Wednesday. Firemen were told a man was working on his motorcycle in the apartment when gasoline leaked into the water heater, starting the fire. Firemen were there 45 minutes. Damage was estimated at $4,500 to the apartment and $1,800 to its contents, including the motorcycle.

Venice sets teacher aide classification

By VALERIE EVENDEN

Superintendent of Schools Robert Vickers reminded the board.

The leave and vacation periods remain the same under the new classifications.

In other business, the board accepted a low bid of $551 from Lombardi Interiors, Granite City, to furnish room-darkening draperies in two special education classrooms. A second bid was submitted by a St. Louis firm for $904.

The replacement of a hot water line in the ceiling of the gym room-cafeteria at the Venice Public School was authorized.

A leak developed in the line during the weekend, causing damage to the tile floor, which also may need replacing, Supt. Vickers informed the board.

As no one on the Venice faculty indicated interest in accepting the assignment of girls' softball coach, the board voted to hire Gloria Gardner, a former Venice student who currently is a physical education teacher in the Madison School District.

Board members were invited to attend an April 6 meeting in Belleville, during at 6 p.m. hear panel discussion on such topics as "Management of Small School Districts" and "Energy," among others.

A workshop for school secretarial workers also will be featured, Supt. Vickers announced. He noted that reservations are needed by April 3.

Other business transacted, included:

Approval for nine members of the Family Living and Parenting Class to attend a dinner at the Red Lobster, St. Louis, as part of the training program.

The district agreed to provide bus transportation and dinner fees this year, but may eliminate the project next year unless the participants pay part of the cost, it was noted.

Approved the purchase of marine plywood to construct basketball courts.

LOUD MUSIC CHARGE
Paul W. Callender, 33, of 2311a Delmar Ave. was charged with disorderly conduct at his home at 1:55 a.m. Wednesday. Repeated instances of loud music playing were alleged.

Investigation angers Sasyk

Calling a county investigation into a Madison police firing "idiotic," "terrible," and "a low blow," Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk yesterday demanded an apology from Madison County State's Attorney Don Weber and Sheriff Emil Toffant.

Sasyk said three assistant state's attorneys and three county detectives came to Madison this week to question him, Chief of Police Don Bridick and Building Inspector John Dutko about two matters.

One was the firing of Police Dispatcher John Lake, a supporter of Jim Riskovsky for mayor, and the other matter was about a no-parking sign on State Street near the Bar-B-Q King restaurant.

"Can you believe it. Six county people here to ask us about a firing? I asked the assistant state's attorney, 'When your boss took office, he fired a bunch of people, didn't he?' When I fire one person, they send down six people to question me. I called Emil (Toffant) and told him I couldn't believe it.

It is so idiotic, it's terrible," Sasyk told the Press-Record. He explained that Lake had already submitted his resignation and planned to go into the Army. One week before the resignation was to become effective, he was fired. Sasyk says it was because he was leaving anyway and a girl dispatcher working under the CETA program had finished her eligibility for that program, so she was given the job. Lake was about to leave and Lake was fired.

Sasyk admitted that Lake had been seen by him and Bridick distributing material for Riskovsky, but denied that he was fired for that. Sasyk said after that incident, Bridick even worked the dispatcher's desk for Lake so Lake could attend a Madison High School basketball game. Bridick was unavailable for comment yesterday.

Sasyk said he does not know what the problem with the no parking sign on State Street is, since the barbecue stand has adequate parking. Besides, he said, there has been a no parking sign there for years, but a new replacement sign was put up recently. "I can't figure that one out. It's not hurting anybody that I know of," the mayor said.

Sasyk said he recently called the sheriff's office on a crime near Madison and was told there were no deputies available. "They don't have any deputies, but they send three detectives here to question me on this? I don't understand it," the mayor said.

"Weber can fire his people, but when I fire someone a week early, this happens. I believe he and Emil both owe me an apology on that and I intend to call them," Sasyk concluded.

The Pioneers explained the meanings of the Royal Ranger emblem. Scott Mahoney said that the four gold points are the four ways a boy grows: mentally, physically, socially and spiritually. Steve Moutria explained that the four red points are the four main teachings of the church: salvation, holy spirit, rapture and healing.

Jerry Weaver then related how the eight blue points are the point of the Royal Ranger code: A Royal Ranger is alert, clean, honest, courageous, loyal, courteous, obedient and spiritual.

Straight Arrow Commander Dan Holmes handed out the advancements for the Straight Arrows while Lt. Commander Dan Dahm pinned the awards on the boys' vests. Advancing to brave were Derek Wolfe, Dennis Johnson, Nathan Kofahl, Marty Wolfe, and Mark Pearman.

Receiving tribesman awards were Jason Stickle and Billy Campbell. Receiving warrior were Brian Wood, Chris Hoffstot and Matt Bowles. A special award was given to Danny Holmes for the Straight Arrow of the Year. He had been Straight Arrow of the Month four times.

Buckaroo Commander David Kostencki then presented the awards to the Buckaroos. Danny Holmes and Warren Kostencki each received the greenhorn and wrangler pins. Chris Madden received the wrangler pin also. Senior Guide Jeff Held received special honor for being the Buckaroo of the Year. He had received all three pins last year.

Pioneer Lt. Commander Kostencki and Tim Black received pins for second class. Steve Moutria and Paul Hogan received their first class rating. John Renner and Jerry Weaver each received master rating, the top in Pioneers. The pioneer of the year to be honored was Scott Mahoney.

Traillblazer Commander Ron Renner presented to Travis Mahoney the advance rating. Bible award, hiking award and wilderness survival. There was a tie for Traillblazer of the Year between Travis Mahoney and Mike Held. Both boys started rangers in 1980 and earned recruit, second class, first class, camping award and other awards.

Both boys also joined the Frontiersman Camping Fraternity. Mike Held was honored for having perfect attendance for 1980. He didn't miss a meeting for the entire year. Traillblazer Commander Les Wiles presented the campmaster award to Traillblazers Jeff Wiles and Guide Tom Chester. The Traillblazers then put on a skit involving the ugliest man in the world.

Senior Commander Don Kurtz, who was also master of ceremonies, presented the service stars to: Straight Arrows Brian Wood, Chris Hoffstot, Matt Bowles and Billy Campbell, all one year.

Buckaroos Bobby Bradford, Warren Kostencki and Danny Holmes all two years; Jeff Held and Ron Noble one year each; Pioneers Jeff Grogan, Paul Hogan, Steve Perigo, Jerry Weaver, each two years and Darrell Pearman and Steve Moutria, each one year.

Some of the boys mentioned for awards were not present but they will receive their awards later.

The Trail Rangers performed a skit dragging a rope.

The devotion was given by the sectional commander, Dan Kostencki. He told of the Illini Indian Legend of Chief Owasita and the Piasa Bird. Buy Venice land for housing development

Mayor Tyrone Echols of Venice told the city council Tuesday night that he is pleased to inform the council that a check for $85,000 was received from Sansone Realty Co., a St. Louis developer which plans to build a multi-family housing project in Venice. The money is to purchase 8.9 acres of land at the intersection of Klein and Bissel streets from the city for the project. The funds will go into the city's general fund.

The councilman agreed to appropriate an additional $460 to the Metropolitan Enforcement Group of Southwestern Illinois (MEGSI). Appropriations were needed, as state support has been reduced and MEGSI needs an additional $11,000. When the bond is distributed among the 24 communities utilizing MEGSI, the cost is $460 per community, or approximately $125 per day.

Alderman John Ervin made a motion that the council participate and the board unanimously agreed. Mayor Echols commended the Venice Volunteer Fire Department for securing needed equipment for the station and firemen, totaling $12,992. Among the items purchased were fire monitors for the volunteers' homes to alert them of emergency calls at the station. "I would like to express our deep appreciation for their work," Mayor Echols commented.

The councilman also was informed of a Health Fair beginning on April 6 and continuing until April 12. Free health evaluations will be given. The tests include screening for anemia, diabetes and high blood pressure. More extensive testing may be obtained for a fee of $6 at St. Elizabeth Medical Center on April 9 and 10 from 11:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.

Financial aid for college students

A series of free workshops to help applicants fill out the necessary financial aid forms for college is scheduled April 6-9 by Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Counselors in the Student Work and Financial Assistance office will lead each session and show parents, students, and prospective students how to complete the American College Testing (ACT) family financial statement, the Illinois State Scholarship Commission (ISSC) monetary award form, and the SIUE application for financial aid.

All three applications are used in determining the kinds of aid a student can receive, said Brendolyn Bailey, coordinator of the workshops.

To complete the required information during the workshop, she suggested that parents and student swage carriers bring copies of their 1979 and 1980 federal tax returns, which will be kept confidential.

The workshops will be held at: SIUE School of Dental Medicine in Alton, April 6, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., with counselors Carmen Kerr and Gary Collins.

SIUE East St. Louis Center, April 7, from 12:30 to 2 p.m. and 7:30-9:30 p.m., with counselors Carmen Kerr and Thelma Thompson.

SIUE Edwardsville campus, April 8, from 12:30 to 2 p.m. and 7:30-9:30 p.m., with counselors Carmen Kerr, Del Weston and Diana Brewer.

Fischer's Restaurant at 2100 W. Main St., Belleville, April 9, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., with counselors Carmen Kerr and John Jettent.

Interested persons may contact Brendolyn Bailey at 692-3880. Copies of all three financial aid forms are available from area high school counselors and from SIUE.

GC wants street sweeper if funding is available

Granite City needs a new street sweeper, but will not purchase one until it can be proven that the money is available, it was decided at Tuesday night's city council meeting.

Alderman Michael Modrusic, chairman of the city's street and alley committee, recommended that the council accept a bid of $55,450 for a new street sweeper from a Maryland Heights, Mo., firm and finance it from the next entitlement of federal revenue sharing, expected next month.

City Treasurer Nick Petrillo said the city expects $122,000 in that entitlement period and said he does not believe that money has been appropriated.

Street Superintendent Lionel Portell said the city badly needs a new street sweeper and said the outright purchase from revenue sharing funds probably would be less expensive in the long run than a lease-purchase agreement with the company. However, if the lump sum is not available, the company would be willing to sell the sweeper to the city on a lease-purchase basis.

Mayor Paul Schuler seemed angered by the request, stating, "You mean you are using us to spend $55,450 for a piece of equipment and we didn't anticipate having that money?"

Portell responded, "For the last two years, there has been a (request for a) sweeper in the budget, but we haven't been able to get the funding. One sweeper is 11 years old and blew up. The other is five years old and is breaking down. We can't do the job without new equipment."

Schuler said that the council recently deliberated for two to four weeks in several meetings over spending $50,000 to repair a serious sewer break and said he feels that was a much more important expenditure than a street sweeper, which the council was asked to buy without any consideration.

City Treasurer Nick Petrillo said he realizes a street sweeper is "an essential item. They asked me if I could come up with the money. It is up to you gentlemen to come up with a sweeper to keep the streets clean," he stated.

Petrillo said he is not positive that the $125,000 anticipated from revenue sharing is unappropriated, but said, "not as far as I know."

That angered Alderman Lloyd Bailey of the Fifth Ward asked, "Why is the treasurer there and can't even tell us if we have the money?"

Petrillo responded, "At that time (budget preparation), we didn't even know if there was going to be an Entitlement 12. We didn't know if they (the federal government) were going to continue the program."

Alderman Sam Whitmer of the Second Ward warned, "We have to have enough to pay the salaries and pay the bills until the real estate taxes come in an I'm not sure we have it."

However, he recalled forecasts last year that the city would be in debt by February or March and stated, "Somebody hollered wolf 11 or 12 months ago and the city still is in the black."

Mayor Schuler summarized, "The only question is do we have $55,000 to spend. This is a critical thing. Let's be sure, because the taxpayer is really concerned about how his dollar is spent."

Modrusic withdrew his motion to accept the low bid and made a motion to refer the purchase back to committee until it has been determined if there are sufficient funds available.

District Pinewood Derby

More than 100 Cub Scouts gathered during the weekend at the Chouteau Township Hall for the annual running of the Uniwh District Pinewood Derby.

The derby is staged for boys 8, 9 and 10 years old, who have built a model racing car, with the help of an adult.

Initially, the miniature cars were raced in contests held at pack meetings. The winners then were eligible to advance to district competition.

Uniwh District winners, determined at the weekend derby, are:

Eight-year-old division—Billy Yarbrough, first, and Bobby Lipchik, second, both from Pack 122; and Tommy Miller, third, Pack 46.

Nine-year-old division—Steve Uram, first, Steve Fridel, second, and Brian Bjorkman, third, all from Pack 13.

Ten-year-old division—Joey Hinnen, first, Pack 22; Keith Haddock, second, Pack 96; and Andy Smith, third, Pack 46.

The nine winners and runnersup are now eligible to compete in the Cahokia Mound Council's Pinewood Derby event, which is scheduled Saturday, April 4, at St. Margaret Mary School, 1900 St. Clair Ave.

Registration for the council championships will take place on the day of the race between 9:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m.

The April 4 contests will start promptly at 10:30 a.m., according to Joe Gosney, district executive.

Support by Firefighters fails to speed council's recognition of new union

Support by the firefighters Local 253 for non-union Granite City employees who wanted to be recognized as members of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees before the April 7 election, failed to sway the Granite City Council Tuesday night.

A spokesman for approximately 23 city clerical employees announced in the Press-Record Monday that the group wanted to join AFSCME, but contended that city officials were "dragging their feet" on the matter until after the election.

Tuesday night, a letter was read from the Firefighters union in support of the clerical workers and asking that they be "afforded the right (to be recognized) as soon as possible." The letter was signed Robert Bell, president of the Firefighters.

The council quickly voted to place the letter on file. Since that was the last city council meeting before the election, the action terminated hopes of recognition before April 7.

After the meeting, William

Dallas Jr., secretary of the city's inspection department and a spokesman for the would-be AFSCME members, contended that letters of support had been received by the mayor from at least one other union, the Pipefitters, but were not read at the council meeting. Other unions had pledged to write letters of support, but it is not known if they were submitted before the council meeting, Dallas said.

Medic Alert marks 25th year

"Doctors save lives, Medic Alert just makes it easier," said Alfred A. Hodder, president of Medic Alert, when he announced that Medic Alert Week, the organization's annual membership drive, is to be held April 5 to 11.

"This year marks our 25th year of providing the finest and most comprehensive emergency medical identification system available anywhere in the world," Hodder commented.

"Our objective is to inform the public about our service, particularly those who have hidden medical conditions, that Medic Alert offers protection for a lifetime," Hodder added.

The Medic Alert emblem is worn as a bracelet or necklace. It is primarily utilized by people who have diabetes, hypertension, heart problems or a serious allergy to penicillin or other medication, for example. Rabies increase Illinois may be facing a third consecutive year of increased animal rabies, according to William L. Kempiners, director of the Illinois Department of Public Health. The 1981 total of reported rabid animals stands at 74, slightly higher than the 65 reported at this time last year, which ended with an all-time record total. During 1980, confirmed cases of animal rabies in Illinois reached 524. The previous high was in 1945, when 477 cases occurred. In 1979, there were 227 cases; 76 in 1978; 54 in 1977; and 55 in 1976.

"Even more disturbing," Kempiners said, "is the increase of rabies in domestic (farm and pet) animals."

Last year, 10 percent of the rabid animals were domestic. So far this year, 23 percent of the rabid animals are domestic.

"Because people have more frequent contact with domestic animals, this means more human exposure to rabies," Kempiners said.

Skunks are still the most common rabid animals, and are thought to be the source of infection for most domestic animals.

Owners of pet dogs and cats are being urged to have them immunized against rabies.

Eleven rabid cattle and five rabid cats have been reported this year, as compared with 29 rabid cattle and 11 rabid cats during all of 1980.

TWYLA LATHROP of Granite City studies a model of a human body in an anatomy and physiology laboratory at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. A sophomore at the university, she plans to become a chiropractor.

Riskovsky announces goals

Jim Riskovsky, independent candidate for mayor of Madison, has issued the following statement on why he is running for office. A statement by the opposing ticket is on Page 24.

"My reasons for seeking the office of mayor are many. My primary concern, of course, is the people. I want to serve the people and give them a voice in our city government.

"In order to accomplish this task, I would hold town meetings so everyone concerned in the betterment of our community would have an opportunity to address their needs and problem areas. I believe by getting the people involved and interested, our city may be able to retain its present population, as well as increase it. As I have said previously, our population has decreased 20 percent in the last 10 years and I pledge to do everything possible to help our fair city grow and move forward.

"Another major area concern is our youths. I want to give our young people a voice in our city government and, by doing this, I believe our junior government is the answer. Our youths are the future of Madison and without their support and interest, our city will not be able to grow. I pledge to get the long-needed vocational trade school started, in order to prepare our young people for the future.

"I want to help our senior citizens as well. I feel an advisory committee would be an asset in helping to make certain that our senior citizens are not deprived of their needs and wants. I pledge to improve the burglar alarm system which some have now so they ring at city hall. As it is now, these alarms just make noise and are really of little benefit in the case of extreme emergency.

"Our law enforcement is another major area of concern. Our police morale has dropped to an all-time low because of present conditions and all of their fellowship and harmony has been lost. I pledge to enact a merit system in order to give our officers an opportunity for advancement.

"I will work closely with our law enforcement people by meeting with them individually, and as a group, to discuss any and all problem areas which they feel are a real concern. I want to bring back the fellowship and harmony our fine officers truly deserve.

"Working with our local retail merchants is another area I pledge to prioritize. I want to help bring additional business and revenue into our city and work with them individually in hopes of helping wherever needed.

"Our major industries also concern me. I want to meet quarterly with major industry leaders in hopes of exchanging ideas and suggestions each may have regarding problem areas.

"As you can see, my reasons are numerous. I want to do everything possible to keep Madison alive, and by doing that, I believe we, as a city, need to work together and not against each other.

"I am not seeking the office of mayor for power, money or prestige. I am seeking the office because I care about the people and about what happens to our city," Riskovsky concluded.

Awards to Sedej and Allen

Student journalists at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville have won seven awards in the annual Midwest regional Mark of Excellence competition, sponsored by the Society of Professional Journalists, Sigma Delta Chi, an international journalism society for college and professional journalists. The awards will be presented tomorrow and Saturday at a meeting of the society in Kansas City.

William G. Ward director of the journalism program at the University, announced that first-place awards will be presented to Ed Sedej of Granite City for best spot news photography, Kevin Allen of Granite City for best magazine article, and Charlie Skaser of Freeburg as editor of the best campus magazine.

A laboratory production in the SIUE journalism program, Focus magazine, has been named best magazine in the region in eight of the last 10 years.

The region also includes Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa, along with 25 university and college journalism programs, eight of which are accredited. Each year, awards are made in nine categories for newspapers, magazines and photography. Over all, nine first places are awarded in print journalism.

This year, students at SIUE won a third of the total. These winners will now compete with winners from the other 11 regions in the nation.

Established 12 years ago when Ward came to the university, the journalism program has steadily grown in enrollment while its students have consistently accumulated awards.

In addition to the Sigma Delta Chi Mark of Excellence competition, SIUE's journalism students and graduates have ranked high in many other advertising, reporting and photography awards and scholarship competitions.

Reagan's office thanks for area patriotic event

Steve Konkovich of Granite City who sponsored a flag-waving contest last Veterans Day has received a letter from the office of President Reagan expressing appreciation of the contest and the efforts to concentrate attention on the American flag.

The letter was received after Konkovich sent a Press-Record news clipping of the event.

The letter said: On behalf of President Reagan, I would like to thank you for your thoughtful message.

The President appreciates and shares in your concern for the continuation of the patriotic spirit that helped make this nation great. He believes that such dedication and enthusiasm will help to convince all Americans that honoring our flag and country is one of the finest duties of citizenship.

With the President's best wishes and thanks for your expression of support.

The letter was signed by Anne Higgins, director of correspondence.

CONSTRUCTION COST CONTROL SEMINAR

A seminar entitled "Effective Construction Management—Reducing Costs and Maintaining Schedules" will be held April 8-9 in St. Louis by the SIUE Center for Management Studies.

James F. Miller, Center director, said the course will explain ways that construction costs can be reduced and project schedules can be maintained through management practices. The program is designed to provide participants with techniques to measure, predict and improve the productivity and performance of construction firms.

For additional information, interested persons may contact Barbara Woods at 692-2668.

Tour Anthropology Museum

A tour of the Anthropology Museum at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and dinner in the university's Mississippi-Illinois Room highlighted the March meeting of the Women's Division of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce.

Last week's tour was under the direction of Dr. Theodore R. Frisbie, professor and chairman of the SIUE Department of Anthropology.

Dr. Frisbie presented a brief introductory talk about the museum, noting its unique development from an idea to a reality in the few short years.

The museum evolved from the planning and construction by students, faculty and staff of the Anthropology Department, utilizing scrap lumber from an old barn, donations from interested people and "scrounged and freebie materials."

"Very little money, but hours and hours of hard work and lots of enthusiasm went into the development of the museum," Dr. Frisbie said. The educator gave a slide presentation, detailing various exhibits, before the tour.

Dr. Frisbie's wife, Dr. Charlotte Frisbie, also a professor of anthropology, accompanied the tour.

A brief business session was conducted by the president, Bonnie Goldenberg, during which reports on a variety of activities were heard.

Shirley Fountain announced next month's regular membership meeting will be replaced with the annual spring dance on April 11 at Sunset Hill Country Club.

Members and guests may make reservations for the dance by calling the division's beautification program and Jeanette Scannell gave a review of the by-laws.

Nancy Polson, Edith Ross, Norma Schroeder, Mary Sedekum, Rosalie Stern, Carolyn Smith, Debbie Thomas, Tina Thomas, Ruth Houser and Mattie Pope.

Bereavement program offered

By ROSEMARIE LINDNER
There are numerous support groups throughout the country who have recognized the difficulty people have trying to pull themselves back into the mainstream of normal living, while they are coping with grief, shock and loneliness.

Hospice of Madison County is aware of these problems and is offering a volunteer bereavement training program. With this structured training Hospice will be able to offer both group and individual support to the families of Hospice patients.

Bereavement or grief has been experienced in many different ways. Because grief can be so painful, and seem overwhelming, it frightens us. Many people worry if they are grieving in the right way and if the feelings they have are normal.

As a response to loss, grief can occur after the loss of anything valued — a spouse — a friend — a home — a body part, or a situation.

Grieving may even begin before death actually occurs. Often in a prolonged death, "anticipatory grieving" is begun by family members — a form of psychological preparation for the impending death.

A bereavement training program is being offered by Hospice of Madison County. The 4 classes for volunteers must be limited to 20 participants because of the nature of the material being presented. The classes will be conducted at St. Elizabeth Medical Center in the multipurpose room, which is located near the new emergency entrance on the ground floor, from 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m.

For more information about the Hospice program or the Bereavement Training Quad-Cityans may call the Hospice office, at 798-3399.

The following is the outline planned for the training program:

March 30 (Monday) first class will cover: 1. "Hospice Approach to Bereavement" by Dr. Charles Corr Ph.D. at SIU. 2. "Volunteers Role in Bereavement" by Irving Rosvold, who organized a visiting bereavement group in Edwardsville.

April 2 (Thursday) second class will cover: 1. "Normal and Abnormal Grief" by Dr. Doris Bell, Ph.D. at SIU in the School of Nursing.

April 7 (Tuesday) third class will cover: 1. "Family Dynamics" by Sandy Crawford, Social Worker; 2. "Funeral Directors and Bereavement" by Randall Irwin, director of Randall A. Irwin Funeral Chapel; 3. "Religion in Bereavement" by Rev. Charlotte Zachary. April 9 (Thursday) fourth class will cover: 1. "Communications" by Dr. Doris Bell.

Township to till gardens

The office of Supervisor Nelson Hagnauer at 2660 Delmar Ave., is now accepting registrations from senior citizens who wish to have garden plots tilled at their homes.

More than 100 registrations already have been received, the office reported.

The work is done by the township as a convenience to senior citizens who wish to raise their own garden vegetables.

During 1980 more than 300 plots were tilled by the township.

DRUG POSSESSION

Police arrested a boy, 16, at 2:55 p.m. Tuesday in a park area at Niedringhaus Avenue and Cleveland Boulevard on charges of possessing 21 cannabis cigarettes and a plastic bag containing yellow capsules. He was taken at 4:50 p.m. that day to the Madison County juvenile detention home.

MISSIONARIES Glenna and Tom Bozarth of the Assemblies of God Division of Foreign Missions, who recently returned from the Marshall Islands in the Pacific. He will speak at 6:30 p.m. Sunday at the First Assembly of God Church, 24th Street and Madison Avenue.

Special missions service Sunday at First Assembly

First Assembly of God Church, 24th Street and Madison Avenue, will emphasize world missions ministries in a special missionary service at 6:30 p.m. Sunday.

Guest missionaries will be Tom and Glenna Bozarth, who have recently returned from a one-year assignment to the Marshall Islands in the Pacific.

The couple will present a report of the "spiritual awakening now taking place in the islands," according to Rev. Dale Edwards, pastor of the local church.

The Bozarts' next assignment will be for two years in the Solomon Islands. They also will administer the Bible school and the International Correspondence Institute ministry.

Rev. Bozarth was ordained in the Assemblies of God in 1954. He has served as an evangelist, pastor, district youth officer, teacher, correctional chaplain and Teen Challenge director.

The public is invited to hear the missionaries Sunday night.

Circus here June 10-12

The annual Ainaid Temple Southern Illinois Shrine circus will be visiting three communities in 1981 instead of the usual two.

DaQuinn has been added to Belleville and Granite City, and the starting date will be June 6 in Belleville after a Friday night parade there June 5.

The show will play June 6-7-8 at the Belleville Fairgrounds with six performances, move to Granite City for a Tuesday night parade on June 9, and then show on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, June 10, 11 and 12.

Following the Granite City performances, the Hubler circus will move to DuQuinn where a 10 a.m. Saturday, June 13, parade will be held, then a 7:30 show that night, concluding with two shows on Sunday, June 14.

Circus Chairman Mark Moreton, chief rabban of the Ainaid Divan, has just received the contract from the George Hubler International Circus. "The caliber of acts and animal shows make it one of the top in the circus world," he commented.

"Last year's show found four of the acts at the top of the circus world, and the show for 1981 will be ranked again with the best."

The 8,800 nobles of Ainaid devote much time to their charity, which is the Shriners hospitals for burned and crippled children. They sent 380 children to the St. Louis orthopedic unit and at present are transporting 54 children back and forth to the Cincinnati, Ohio, Burns Institute at no cost to the parents.

This is the 15th annual circus by Ainaid nobility, and Potentate Donald G. Adams of Granite City, has expressed great desire that this be the best ever.

"Ainaid has always been among the lowest in prices for its shows, and this year will be no different. The costs is only $3 per adult, or two children on an adult ticket."

Zoning hearings Friday

The Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals will conduct two on-site public hearings in Quad-City area townships tomorrow before making recommendations on the zoning requests to the Madison County Board.

The first hearing will begin at 10:25 a.m. Friday at 308 Hill Street, Eagle Park Acres, where Jewell Hill is requesting a special use permit to continue the placement of a mobile home for the rest of her lifetime. The property is in Venice Township and is zoned R-4 for single-family residential use.

At 11:10 a.m. Friday, the board will meet behind Reichman Enterprises on West Chain of Rocks Road near the Chain of Rocks Canal Bridge where Glen Reichman and Doyle Husband are requesting a variance for the outside storage of goods and materials for Husband Contracting. The property is in a B-3 highway business district of Chouteau Township.

If the weather is inclement and the hearings cannot be held, they will be rescheduled for Monday at the same times.

Are you satisfied with your sewage treatment bill that doubled?

WHY?

"You can be Sure with Schuler" of higher patronage costs to you!

Granite City Sewage Treatment Plant in 1972 treated 6 million gallons per day. In 1980 the Granite City Sewage Treatment Plant treated 5.7 million gallons per day at a time when use went down.

June 1, 1972 11,523 users;
June 1, 1979 11,361 users;

Cost went up as follows:

	Salary Cost for Fiscal Year	Salary Increase of
1973	$180,579.45
1974	187,569.22	+ 6,689.72
1975	196,699.35	+ 9,130.13
1976	274,653.86	+ 77,954.51
1977	388,998.70	+ 114,344.84
1978	497,264.85	+ 108,266.15
1979	528,786.57	+ 31,521.72

Interestingly, all large increases came before, during and after last mayor's race in 1977. Payroll costs increased from 1973 to 1979—385.66%. The number of employees increased from 17 to 34.

In the neighboring city of Alton, they treat 4.7 million gallons per day with only 11 employees!!!

'Gag order' against Weber

"Outrage" expressed by Madison County State's Attorney Don Weber last week over an alleged misconduct of a Illinois Department of Public Health worker led to a gag order being issued against Weber Friday by Associate Judge Thomas Hildebrand.

Anthony Momoh, 29, Collinsville, a venereal disease counselor in the public health agency's Glen Carbon office, is accused of ordering a teenage girl to disrobe and conducting a pelvic examination on one Jan. 28. It also charges that he ordered another teenage girl to disrobe on another occasion and that he gave both girls penicillin pills and instructed them how to take the pills.

Momoh, a native of West Africa, was indicted by a grand jury Thursday on two counts of official misconduct and one count each of attempted official misconduct, aggravated battery, practicing medicine without a license, practicing pharmacy without a license and violating the rules of the health department.

If convicted, he could be sentenced to five years in prison and a $500 fine could be imposed. His bond was set at $50,000 and Judge Hildebrand allowed him to post half in cash and the remainder in recognizance.

After Momoh was indicted

Thursday, Weber made comments to the press alleging that the Public Health Department attempted to impede an investigation into the allegations, including refusal to turn over internal documents and continued interference with the investigation into activities in the Glen Carbon office of the department.

Weber also said he will ask a grand jury to study the alleged "cover up" and he will conduct an investigation into whether medications at the Glen Carbon office are accessible to unauthorized persons.

Matthew 8:7 . . . "I will come and heal him."

These are the words of Jesus in response to a Centurion soldier whose servant was sick with palsy.

There are three things that we should note in this Bible story. First of all, there was a need. Secondly, the Centurion came to Jesus first. And lastly, Jesus said, "I will come."

You can have a need and God is concerned. If the need is real, if it is a great concern to you, if that need must be met, know that God cares.

Will you bring that need to God? Will you pray to the Father? Will you be open and honest before Him? Will you make the first move? His ear is always open.

Then know this: Jesus will come! He will meet your need. He has the answer for your situation. He cares.

Have faith in God. When you pray, believe also. Jesus will come to you. Today.

Guiding TV viewing

By CATHERINE R. MAUCK
County Extension Adviser

Home Economics

Would you put a refrigerator in your child's bedroom and allow him or her to eat as much of any food he or she wants, anytime? Probably not, but many children choose their television "diet" in just that way.

Often, parents push for censorship help outside their home—from networks, advertisers, government. Sometimes they get good results.

However, control can come more effectively from within the home. Parents must care enough to guide their children's TV viewing.

Improvement can come only if families look first at their current level of TV viewing. Keep a TV diary by each television set to record viewing habits. Provide space for recording the programs watched, the time and the viewer. The diary quickly reflects family patterns of TV use and current or potential problems.

Going to the movie is usually a special event for families. They decide which movie to attend only after discussing its suitability. If the family is bored or offended by the movie, they are likely to leave or feel cheated. After the movie, they usually talk about it. You should apply the same approach to television viewing.

First, in the same way you plan daily meals, select in advance those programs which make up a healthy viewing diet.

Second, interrupt the program and react to things you like about it, disagree with or dislike. Discuss things your family may not understand. Encourage your children to evaluate the program out loud.

Third, use program content as a springboard for family discussions you might otherwise neglect or postpone. You may discuss some very sensitive issues: death, drugs, family relationships. Research confirms that adults can drastically influence the quality of information children learn and retain from television viewing. The teamwork families develop in making television a creative, positive force in their lives is worth the effort it takes to change old TV viewing habits.

Reye's Syndrome bill passes House

The Illinois House has passed a measure sponsored by Rep. Everett G. Steele (R-Glen Carbon) to help state health officials gather information on the causes of Reye's Syndrome.

The little-understood flu-like disease afflicts children and many fatalities have occurred.

House Bill 31 would require doctors, hospitals and clinics to report certain data about Reye's Syndrome patients to the State Department of Public Health.

Steele said he would like for the department to be authorized to study characteristics of the children who contract the disease.

"Reye's Syndrome was identified in several deaths in our area recently. All we know about it is that its symptoms are similar to flu symptoms, and it is fatal in 20 to 30 percent of the children it strikes."

"Much more information is needed to know if it is treatable," Steele said.

"The legislation directs the state to determine what types of information it would collect on incidence of the disease, such as age, general health and symptoms."

"Patient-physician confidentiality would not be violated, because the names of those afflicted would not be reported to the department."

"Until enough information on the causes, effects and occurrences of Reye's Syndrome is gathered for study by health professionals, it will be difficult for any physician to treat such cases," the 56th District lawmaker concluded.

Venice, GC teachers win IFT positions

Teacher union leaders from across the state converged on the Hyatt Regency O'Hare, Rosemont, for the 43rd annual convention of the Illinois Federation of Teachers, ending last week.

In addition to convention business, the teacher delegates were addressed by political, education and labor leaders during the three-day session.

The 21 vice-presidents elected included Irene Orr of Venice and Shirley Stoll of Granite City.

American Federation of Teachers President Albert Shanker attacked President Ronald Reagan's proposed budget and the concept of tuition tax credits. He called the proposals a threat to the existence of public education in the U.S.

Senator Alan Dixon and Congressman Harold Washington expressed concern for the future of education and pledged to work to protect it.

State Senator Arthur Gorman, like many of the other speakers, predicted a "rough road" for education, not only in Illinois but across the nation.

Robert Healey, president of the Chicago Teachers Union, was elected unanimously to his sixth consecutive two-year term as president of the 45,000-member statewide teacher organization.

GC's early history told

Historical data about Granite City and the surrounding area was provided by Mrs. Georgia Engelke at last week's meeting of the Nameoki Woman's Club.

The group met at the Nameoki Recreation Center, with 17 members and five guests attending.

Mrs. Maxine Maas and Mrs. Dorothy McCauley, hostesses, served a dessert course at tables attractively appointed in a St. Patrick's Day motif.

The invocation was offered by Mrs. Janette Krause. Guests included Mrs. Mary Wilkins, Mrs. Emma Schoen, Mrs. Helen Krumsiek, Mrs. Mary Miller and Mrs. Engelke. Mrs. Opal Todd was welcomed as a new member.

Mrs. Engelke gave an informative talk about the settlement of this region, beginning with its first inhabitants—the Indians—who were followed by French and German pioneers.

The speaker described the start of local industry when the Niedringhaus family built a factory here to produce granitewear products.

Mrs. Eitel Beeler, president, also spoke briefly about the proper care, cleaning and disposal of an American flag.

Contrary to popular belief, Mrs. Beeler said, a flag in general disrepair should not be destroyed by an individual, but sent to a unit of the Veterans of Foreign Wars or Disabled American Veterans for burning.

In the business session, Mrs. Beeler reminded members the annual spring meeting of the 22nd Federation District will take place April 13 at Augustine's Restaurant.

At the club's April meeting, a vocal chorus from Granite City High School South will provide the entertainment, Miss Hazel Towery, program chairman, announced.

Your Convenience — Our Pleasure

NOW WE'RE ALL YOU NEED.

If you're like most people, you've had your checking account at a bank where you got nothing in return for it, except a service charge.

On the other hand, you may have had your savings account at a savings and loan because you got higher interest. And you may have been using another institution for your home, car, or personal loans.

Now you can put all your financial activities under one convenient roof. Your nearby Illini Federal Savings and Loan Office.

IT PAYS TO CHECK WITH US. After looking around, you may have discovered that many financial institutions in the area are going to pay interest on checking accounts. This may have misled you into thinking that all NOW Accounts are alike.

At Illini Federal, we offer

5 1/2% interest, compounded daily and paid monthly. But unlike some institutions, we're not trying to get the interest you earn back in service charges.

If you keep at least $200 in your NOW Account, you can write checks on it for free. If your balance dips below $200, the charge is an easy-to-handle three dollars a month. At Illini, there are no transaction fees, no hidden charges, and no fooling.

Import issue in bright spotlight as reports show autos are a big factor in Illinois-Michigan employment decline

Excerpts from Bureau of Labor Statistics reports—Unemployment rates in 1980 were high in the states most directly affected by automobile and related manufacturing industries, sharpening interest in the car import issue. Rates for white workers in most of the industrial North Central states were over 7 percent and, in Michigan, exceeded 11 percent. By contrast, in the central farm belt from North Dakota down to Texas, and in several Southern states, jobless rates were below 5 percent. Lowest unemployment for whites was in Nebraska (3.6 percent) and the District of Columbia (3.5).

Unemployment for black and other races was under 5 percent only in Hawaii, where Asians and Pacific Islanders comprise a large majority of the labor force. Black and other minority unemployment rates were at least 10 percent in 35 of the 38 states where separate rates were available in 1980, including 15 states with rates of at least 15 percent, primarily in the eastern part of the North Central and South Central regions. Highest rates were in Michigan (23.5 percent) and Montana (20). In Montana, American Indians constitute nearly 90 percent of the minority workers.

Nationally, 1980 unemployment for minorities (13.2 percent) was more than double the rate for whites (6.3 percent). Only Hawaii had a minority rate lower than the rate for whites.

Nearly a third of all unemployed in the S. were concentrated in four large states last year—California, Illinois, Michigan and New York—where 27 percent of the white labor force and 30 percent of the minority labor force reside. Minorities accounted for one in every eight persons in the labor force in these states, but one in every five of the jobless, about the same as the national relationship.

Wage and salary earnings failed to keep pace with consumer prices in the year ended with the 1980 fourth quarter. Median weekly earnings of individuals employed full-time rose 9.5 percent, from $253 to $277. For families, the median increased only 6.3 percent, from $380 to $405, because some workers lost their jobs and others were cut back to part-time work.

Over the same period, prices as measured by the consumer price index for urban wage earners and clerical workers rose 12.6 percent.

Reflecting the economic slowdown, the number of married-couple families with two or more earners dropped by 600,000 from the fourth quarter of 1979 to October-December 1980. Most of this decline occurred among families in which both husband and wife had previously been working.

Despite the decline in number, multi-earner families still accounted for more than half of all married-couple families with earners. Their median earnings of $552 were substantially higher than those of one-earner families. Among multi-earner families, earnings averaged $559 for whites, $480 for blacks and $466 for Hispanics.

The number of married-couple families in which there were jobless members as well as wage and salary workers rose by 580,000 over the year, from 1.7 to 2.3 million in the fourth quarter of 1980.

Average earnings of these families were $321 in the fourth quarter, about the same as such earnings in the final quarter of 1979. Because of rising price levels, their real earnings fell.

Families where the husband was unemployed and there were working family members where the jobless person was the wife or some other member. In the latter cases, the earnings were $313 and $470, respectively.

Real earnings—current dollar earnings adjusted to constant dollars—of those who worked full time fell 2.7 percent in the year that ended with the 1980 fourth quarter, about the same as the 3.0 percent decline in the year ending with the 1980 third quarter. The decrease for the years ending with the first and second quarters were 4.3 and 5.9 percent, respectively. There were smaller rises in consumer prices in the second half of the year than in the first half.

Managers and administrators, with median usual weekly earnings of $390, were the highest paid workers, followed by professional and technical workers ($358) and craft workers ($340). Employees in farm and service jobs received $178 and $185.

Earnings of part-time workers (in current dollars) were 7.9 percent higher than a year earlier. Their employment rose 3 percent, in contrast to a 1.5 percent decline in full-time employment.

This nation's overall unemployment was 7.3 percent in February 1981; it had been 7.4 percent in the prior two months. Total employment edged up to 97.9 million; jobless totaled 7.8 million. Non-farm payroll jobs were unchanged at 91.5 million.

Jobless figures for most major worker groups in February were about the same as in January: adult men (6 percent), adult women (6.3), teenagers (19.3), jobs (6.6), Hispanics (12) and black and other workers (13.1). All of these rates were substantially above their year-earlier levels.

The number of persons jobless for 15 weeks or more dropped in February, and the median duration of unemployment declined from 7.4 to 6.9 weeks, still well above the year-ago level.

The number of unemployed persons on layoff or permanently separated from their jobs (job losers) declined between January and January 1981; it was unchanged in February at 3.9 million. The other unemployment categories—job leavers and labor force entrants—have shown no consistent trend since June.

Total employment rose by 230,000 last month and exceeds the 1980 peak. Adult women accounted for nearly all of the gain, with 78.7 percent in February. February employment total was 835,000 above February 1980. Meanwhile, employment of adult men and teenagers was 140,000 poorer in February 1980.

The civilian labor force at 105.7 million has grown by 1.6 million in the past year, a slower pace than in recent years. Adult women's labor force participation has reached an all-time high of 51.9 percent.

The labor force increase for adult men was smaller than their population growth over the past 12 months; their participation rate continued its long-term decline and was 78.7 percent in February.

Construction jobs dropped by 110,000 over the month, following several months of gains. At 4.5 million, such jobs are still 140,000 poorer in February 1980.

The 20.4 million manufacturing jobs remain well below pre-recession levels. Employment rose 110,000 in wholesale and retail trade, and there were small job increases in finance, insurance and real estate. Federal government jobs declined.

The producer price index for finished goods moved up 0.8 percent after seasonal adjustment from January to February, following a 0.9 percent advance in January and a 0.5 percent rise in December.

The latest monthly "inflation rate" announced in Washington on Tuesday was a full 1 percent.

Before seasonal adjustment, the price index for finished goods increased 1.0 percent in February, the finished goods index rose 1.0 percent.

Consumer food prices were up 8.1 percent from February '80 to February '81; finished consumer goods climbed 22.3 percent; prices for finished consumer goods (other than food and energy) advanced 7.9 percent; and prices for finished equipment prices increased 11.2 percent.

The producer price index for intermediate goods rose 9.5 percent over the year, and crude material prices moved up 12.4 percent.

Smithson best of an able group

To the Editor:

Have you read all the leaflets, editorials, etc., about what good our candidates have done? Pretty confusing, isn't it?

I live in the 6th Ward and that makes it easy in choosing my alderman.

Records show that each candidate has done something of benefit to his community. I would hope that each one would continue to do so if elected.

But let's get down to the nitty gritty...not the candidate, but the man himself.

My vote goes to the man who pauses when leaving for work in his car, to smile and wave to his daughter standing in the doorway.

My vote goes to the man whose wife stands beside him on any decision, and makes, and picks up the pieces when things go wrong. My vote goes to the man who works hard at two jobs to give his family the security and comfort he wants them to have. And, the same man who, when elected, will give up one of these jobs to be there when the 6th Ward needs him.

My vote goes to the man who gives of himself to everyone. Not because he's trying to look good, but because that's the way he is. This man will not back away from responsibility. He is involved in family, church and community.

My vote goes to the man who sees his picture in the paper, laughs, and agrees that he looks like No. 1 on the most wanted list. He is the most needed and, I hope, the most wanted alderman of the 6th Ward. I gladly give my support and encouragement to my friend, neighbor and, I hope, next alderman, Bill Smithson.

Crackdown on mobile home park

The Granite City Inspector Department, often cited by Alderman Warren Decatur, a candidate for mayor, as a "do nothing" department, was cranked into action by Mayor Paul Schuler yesterday morning against the Shelton Mobile Home Park, East 23rd Street and Nameoki Road.

Allegations of unhealthy and unsafe conditions in the mobile home park were made at Tuesday night's city council meeting by First Ward Alderman Charles Douglas, who introduced the resolution of that area and asked him to address the council.

The young man said he lives in a house near the mobile home park and has been trying, unsuccessfully, for 10 months to get the city inspector to act to clean up the park. The man alleged there is one trash dumpster for 16 mobile homes which frequently overflows onto the ground and attracts rats.

He also said the condition of the mobile homes has been deteriorating, some have holes in them, the electrical wiring appears worn and dangerous, there is trash and old furniture on the ground and there is no where for the children to play, so they use neighbors yards and vandalize the houses nearby.

Inspector Emerald Dawes has ignored his pleas to force a cleanup of the mobile home park. "I talked to him 'till I'm blue in the face and I feel I'm being shrugged off," the man told the council.

Dawes said he is aware of the problems, has taken photographs of the trash and garbage and instructed City Clerk Robert W. Stevens six months ago not to renew the license of the mobile home court when it expires May 1, until the inspection department declares the park safe.

Dawes agreed he has refused to put out rat poison in the park because children, dogs and cats could eat the poison. "You just don't go putting out rat poison anywhere. You've got to be very careful," he said, adding, "It's too dangerous and I don't want any little kids hurt."

"We are taking the only steps we can," Dawes said. Douglas disagreed and said that obvious violations of the law, such as garbage on the ground, should be dealt with immediately. "If they are not meeting the ordinances, all that has to be done is to ticket them. The city inspector has the right to ticket people when he sees violations."

"I would like to see this council and the mayor make sure that we make the inspector enforce the laws a little better," Douglas concluded.

Mayor Schuler thanked the resident of that area for informing the council of the problem and stated, "I only wish you had let us know sooner."

The mayor then turned to Dawes and stated, "Dawes, at 10 a.m. tomorrow, bring the building inspector and the electrical inspector and I will bring the city attorney and city engineer and something will be done. I wasn't aware of the magnitude of what you gentlemen described, but I guarantee something will be done."

"This is a very serious situation. Inadequate wiring could cause a fire and we could have a disaster," the mayor concluded.

Much accomplished by Schuler

As the election for the mayor draws near, I watch with amazement some of the false statements that have been brought against the present mayor.

First, I will call to your attention to "the overpass" that he should have got sooner and the excessive cost.

As a matter of fact, by every mayor who has been elected in Granite City in the past 25 years, one of their main campaign pledges was to get the overpass built.

Either they did not have the ability, or they did not work hard enough, to get the job done. Whichever it was, I question that I cannot answer.

Next is the charge that Mayor Schuler let the city fall into disarray, again. During the present administration, more has been accomplished than in any other of the administrations with Schuler signs.

I guess they are just good friends of Chris Costoff (county Democratic chairman).

An independent candidate they say — for the 4th Ward came to my house and asked for my support. He told me Chris gave him full support.

The lady who talks about Mayor Schuler's yard signs being torn down — maybe she only travels on Madison Avenue. She should drive down some other streets and see the Party signs that have been vandalized.

I think a law should be passed — no election campaign signs allowed in any yard. They all look bad for our city.

Governor James R. Thompson proposed Tuesday a new 5 percent state tax on sale of petroleum products refined or distributed in Illinois, such as gasoline, diesel fuel and fertilizer. It would boost the price of gasoline an estimated 3 to 6 cents a gallon. The plan would permit a $200 million loan to the Chicago area transit authority and would provide about $1 billion over the next two years for bus service and highway construction.

President Ronald Reagan will address a joint session of the Illinois General Assembly Wednesday, April 1, on his vision of the state under new federal economic approaches.

The Belleville Area College board voted 4-1 Tuesday to hire Presidential Search Consulting Service of Washington, D.C., to help conduct a search for a new BAC president. Avery Schermer voted "present," Robert Dintelman with nays, and Bartkowski opposed the contract and Curt Eckert was absent. Chairman Robert Dintelman will name a search committee including Jack Becker.

Sasyk challenged by Riskovsky April 7 for mayor of Madison

An active campaign is coming to a close for Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk, 59, of 1423 Fifth St., and challenger Jim Riskovsky. Sasyk has served as mayor since April of 1970 when he was chosen in a special election to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Stephen Macraes. At that time, Sasyk became only the second mayor of Madison since its incorporation as a city in 1942.

He was elected to his first full term in 1973 and was re-elected in 1977.

Sasyk, a real estate developer in Appleton Heights, is a lifelong resident of Madison and was educated in the Madison schools. He was a member of the peace from 1948 to 1952 and currently serves as chairman of the city's police and firemen's board.

Madison during his term as mayor and will work hard to see that the community continues to grow.

Recent programs under his administration include cable television; which will be offered soon, a new trash program; which is in the experimental stage; blacktopped streets and alleys, better street lighting, burglar alarms in all businesses, schools and churches which requested them and alarms in many senior citizens' homes and the redecorating of many Madison Avenue business fronts in an Alpine theme.

"I think we have a good city and we work with our citizens to help them. It takes all of us working together to get something done," Sasyk said.

Revised plans for SIUE building are approved

Revised plans and specifications for the proposed multipurpose building at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville were approved last week by the SIUE Board of Trustees. Bids on the project are scheduled to be opened by the Capital Development Board in Springfield on April 2.

University officers said plans and specifications for the building were revised by the project architect, William Thompson and Associates, after the initial bids which were opened Dec. 19 totaled nearly $2.5 million over the available project construction budget of approximately $10 million.

Discussions were held with the architect, resulting in a number of structural and design modifications which are expected to reduce costs enough to meet the project budget. Dr. James R. Buck, SIUE director of development and public affairs, said the modifications do not reduce or eliminate the major program goals for the building.

Revisions include a reduction in the size of the lobby, removal of the underground walkway and viewing area for the swimming pool, changes in some of the decorative exterior and exterior finishes, and the elimination of a large square feet of usable space, the multipurpose building will have classrooms, laboratory, faculty offices, multipurpose gymnasium, studios, specialized recreation facilities, training rooms, locker rooms and swimming pool.

Instructional, recreational and competitive events and activities will include basketball, tennis, gymnastics, jogging, volleyball, badminton, wrestling, handball, racquetball, weight training and swimming.

Movable spectator seating will be provided for 5,000 in the main gymnasium. The facility is designed to meet the necessary structural and lighting requirements to stage various large-scale shows, concerts, dances and other special events.

Dr. Buck said the University has been assured that the energy, strength and safety features of the structure have been maintained and the new assignable area for activities preserved.

Construction is expected to require approximately two years, and groundbreaking

2 seek Venice tax collector's post

EVELYN HOLT

Evelyn M. Holt, 50, of 1025 Alton Ave., Madison, a lifelong resident of the Quad-City area, is a candidate for Venice Township tax collector. She is opposed.

Mrs. Holt served as cafeteria director for the Madison public schools from March, 1972, until resigning in December, 1979. Previously, she was head cook at Madison High School from 1966 to 1972. She also worked at Harris Elementary School as a secretary.

She graduated in 1968 from Madison High School and has attended classes in nutrition and food at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville the last seven summers.

She is a past secretary, vice-president and president of the Madison Schools Mothers' Club and is a past secretary and president of the Madison Band Parents.

She and her husband, Gene, have three grown daughters.

Mrs. Holt said she is seeking election on the following platform: "As you Venice Township tax collector, I will bring honesty and integrity to the office. Anytime you are placed in a position of collecting tax monies, you certainly must be fiscally responsible and demonstrate good management abilities."

"I plan to establish regular business hours when tax monies are due, making it as convenient as possible for our senior citizens and other taxpayers to come into the office," she concluded.

ZELLA NIEHAUS

Zella Niehaus is the candidate for Venice Township tax collector on the Progress Party ticket. She has been a lifetime resident of Madison and lives at 1115 McCambridge Ave. with her husband, Richard. They have seven children.

Mrs. Niehaus is president of the Madison City and Democratic Auxiliary, vice-president of the Madison High School Title I Parents Committee, and is the Madison Volunteer Fire Department Auxiliary vice-president.

"I have the desire to learn and assume all of the duties and responsibilities of the tax collector and I feel I have the ability and knowledge to do so," said Mrs. Niehaus.

She continued, "I feel the local tax collector should distribute the taxes collected to the local taxing districts as quickly as possible and I will work hard to organize and administer the tax collector's office to that effect. I have held administrative positions in several of the local clubs in Madison, and I have always enjoyed meeting people working on their behalf, and I feel I will be an asset to the people of Venice Township."

Implimentation of new postal rates announced

The Postal Service has announced that non-denominated "B" postage stamps and related items of postal stationery will be issued to correspond with new rates that went into effect March 22.

At that time, the cost of mailing a First-Class letter rose to 18 cents from the current 15 cents and increases took place in other classes of mail. It was the first domestic rate increase since May, 1978.

The Governors of the Postal Service voted March 10 to allow the new rates to go into effect under protest and returned the case to the independent Postal Rate Commission for reconsideration.

The Board of Governors had filed with the Rate Commission last April for a 20-cent First-Class rate and a total rate package that would yield $3.75 billion in new revenue. The commission recommended an 18-cent rate and a total package that would produce some $1 billion less than the Postal Service had sought.

The non-denominated Postal items were produced as a contingency and the decision to issue them was made to insure that there would be an adequate supply of stamps to meet the nation's needs, Postmaster General William F. Bolger said.

A "B" embossed stamped envelope and a "non-denominated" postal card will also be issued. The embossed envelope will sell for 22 cents (18 cents postage, 4 cents for the envelope), and the postal card for 12 cents, the new postal rate.

First-day sales of the items took place March 15 in Memphis, Tenn., and San Francisco, Calif. The items went on sale in all post offices across the country the following day, March 16.

Bolger stressed that the non-denominated items are for use within the United States only and are prohibited for use on international mail.

He noted that, in addition to the non-denominated stamps, there is an abundant supply of 15-cent stamps on hand, which may be used in combination with low-value stamps to meet the new rate. Production of three-cent stamps has been increased to meet the anticipated demand.

Additionally, an 18-cent stamp bearing the likeness of Dr. Elizabeth Blackwell has been in the Service's inventory since 1974 and is available in many post offices.

The supply of "B" stamps will be phased out eventually and replaced by regular stamp issues.

Except for background color, the design of the "B" stamp is identical to the "A" stamp issued under similar circumstances in 1978. The "A" stamp had an orange background while the background color of the "B" stamp is purple.

The postal card design differs from other items in that it shows only an eagle and the words "U.S. Postage" and "Domestic Rate." On the embossed envelope, the eagle appears to the right of the eagle and in the stamp design, it appears to the left of the eagle.

Madison officials list reasons for candidacy

The Citizens Improvement Party of Madison, headed by Mayor Mike Sasyk who is seeking re-election, issued a statement today in which it outlined the reasons of its candidates in seeking city offices.

The statement said: The present city officials are taking this opportunity to announce that the following officials are running for election or re-election on the Citizen's Improvement Party slate in the City of Madison.

Mayor, Mike Sasyk; city clerk, John Belcoff; city treasurer, Hilbert Hodestra. Aldermen: Ward 1, R. Don Reeves; Ward 2, Ida Dant; Ward 3, Thomas Gordon; Ward 4, Christ Costoff; Ward 5, Booker Walton.

It is through the efforts of the above individuals, who are currently running for office, the other elected officials of the City of Madison, and the current city administration that many improvements have been made in our city during the past ten years. We are all proud to have played a role in the blacktopping of our streets and alleys, the installation and maintenance of a comprehensive burglar alarm system throughout our community, the expansion of playground and recreation programs offered to our citizens, and the initiation of a new trash pick-up program that will be more efficient and more sanitary.

We are also happy to have made the needs and welfare of our senior citizens one of our top priorities during the past ten years. We feel that the senior citizens have been the backbone of our success in the city of Madison and know they deserve our honor and respect. Therefore we have always tried to meet the needs and requests of our senior citizens, and pledge to continue to do whatever we can to make their lives more enjoyable.

In these difficult economic times we have worked hard to attract companies such as Southwest Steel, Metal Coating Products, T.W.R. Freight Car Repair Corporation, Brady-Jordan Engineering and Kreider Trucking into the City of Madison. We plan to continue our hard work in the future to convince more industries to locate or expand in our community.

Our future plans for Madison include: (1) operating our own Cable TV system and integrating an emergency police, fire and ambulance alarm system that will be hooked up directly to our police Department, and offering all of these services at a rate reasonable enough to allow everyone to afford them, (2) expanding our new plastic container trash-pick up system into a city-wide project, (3) continuing in our goal to have a small shopping center project built at Third and Madison Avenue, and (4) operating our own ambulance service through the cooperation of our Volunteer Fire Department.

We are happy to announce that retail sales in our city have increased over 60 percent in the last ten years.

We attribute this increase in sales to the aggressive work done by our business merchants, and would like to think that the cooperation of the city administration with our merchants played a part in assuring the sales increased in the past and will continue to increase in the future.

We are proud that our community has continued to improve throughout our years in office due to the investment of our residents and business merchants in the cleaning-up, remodeling and renovation of their properties. We feel fortunate to represent residents who take pride in their community, and ask that they continue to show their confidence in our leadership by voting for our complete slate of candidates on April 7.

Exempt signs at some rail crossings

The Illinois Department of Transportation reports that certain trucks and buses will no longer be required to stop at railroad grade crossings that are officially marked as exempt. The state law that such crossings was revised the first of this year.

These abandoned, or seldom used, industrial or spur trucks not requiring stops are designated as exempt by the Illinois Commerce Commission and marked by an appropriate highway authority with an official sign.

The EXEMPT signs will be erected under both the railroad crossbuck and the railroad advance warning sign.

Highway authorities have begun using the exempt signing at appropriate locations. The purpose of designating and signing exempt crossings is to eliminate unnecessary and unsafe stops by certain second division trucks and buses.

However, all motorists should still use due caution when traveling over an exempt crossing, since trains, even though very infrequently, may still utilize a few of these crossings.

The seldom used crossings are to be protected by a flagman when trains are present.

TAIWAN TO PURCHASE ILLINOIS PRODUCTS

Senator Charles H. Percy (R-Ill.) has announced a purchasing mission from Taiwan will be in Illinois in early May to buy $74 million worth of Illinois products and to meet with companies interested in developing export markets.

During his recent trip to Seoul, South Korea, as head of the American delegation to the inauguration of President Chun, Percy met with Premier Y.S. Sun of Taiwan to urge greater purchases of agricultural and industrial products from Illinois. Sun informed the senator that the purchasing mission plans to spend $74 million on goods from Illinois during the next year. The products will include corn, soybeans, fork-lift trucks, bulldozers, hydraulic cranes and towing tractors.

2 vie for GC supervisor

NELSON HAGAUER

TOM NESBIT

Nelson "Nellie" Hagauer is seeking re-election April 7 as supervisor of Granite City Township. He has served in that position since 1961, following six years as an assistant supervisor.

Hagauer is a lifelong resident of the area and is a "man of many hats," serving as county board member and chairman of the Madison County Board, in addition to his township duties.

Hagauer served in the U.S. Navy from 1945 to 1947 and was a member of Local 893, Operating Engineers, for 17 years. He holds a withdrawal card from that union.

He is a member of the Illinois Welfare Association and the Township Officials of Illinois, is listed in Who's Who in American Government and his sports achievements earned him election to the Illinois State Hall of Fame, awarded in April, 1980.

He has served on the county board since being elected an assistant supervisor in 1955. Since being elected supervisor in 1961, he has been re-elected each four years.

He married the former Miss Bernadine "Bernie" Hagauer 31 years ago and she assists him in the operation of the new township hall, including his office there. They have two children, Nelson Jr., and Carol Sue.

Hagauer said he is proud of his accomplishments on the behalf of the township, particularly in the last four years when the new town hall at 21st Street and Delmar Avenue opened, a fleet of three buses, two equipped with wheelchair lifts, began taking senior citizens from their homes to important appointments, the township financed baseball-soccer field lights for the Fehling Road Soccer Complex, new playground equipment was purchased for city parks and other programs were started.

Some of the other programs initiated by Hagauer include garden tilling for senior citizens, a snow removal program, the medical alert program, fencing for Anchorage homes, a daily nutrition program for the elderly, and health care, field trips, monthly dances and movies and other events for our senior citizens.

"If I am privileged to be re-elected, I will continue these programs and plan to start additional ones. However, I need your support to do so," he said.

Thomas F. Nesbit, 62, is seeking to unseat Nelson Hagauer as township supervisor of Granite City in the April 7 election.

Nesbit, who has been a Granite City resident for 33 years, received his education in Brentwood, Mo. He is a cement finisher with Local 90, Cement Finishers and Road Builders Association, by trying to increase the number of jobs in this area as well as keeping the current employers, and to give "an honest effort to perform all the duties of the township supervisor."

He is a past commander of VFW Post 1300 and is a member of the Granite City Democratic Club and the Tri-City Central Trades Council. Nesbit also served on the board of the United Way.

He stated that he wanted to "turn Granite City around" by working as a full time supervisor, by trying to increase the number of jobs in this area as well as keeping the current employers, and to give "an honest effort to perform all the duties of the township supervisor."

He and his wife, Mary Sue, live at 2807 Warren Ave. They have six children.

Steelers take opening day victory from Triad

By TOM SCHOCKER

ST. JACOB — It wasn't the best conditions for opening up a season, but the rain and cold weather didn't bother the Granite City North baseball team. It was the Steeler's season opener here Wednesday and they wanted to make a point — Don't overlook them.

The Triad Knights tried to make up for this mistake. They failed. Despite the depletion of power from last year's squad, the Steelers still managed to put four hits to good use. North jumped on the winning side with a 4-3 victory over Triad.

Through four innings, the Steelers could only muster up three hits. They way they handled their running, though, it was all their at-bat needed. North was in front 3-0.

Mark Hessler, Daren DePew, and Rick Buer scored the runs as Buer and Rick Takmajian came up for first. Of North's hits, Buer went two-for-three with a triple.

Although the Steelers had the lead, their lack of offense was a concern among the coaching staff. "After two years of good hitting, sure I was worried," said North head coach Bob Stegemeier. "But, I knew we wouldn't be as strong offensively as we were last year. So, in order for us to be successful, we'll have to run."

The Steelers did their running in spurts and it gave them a comfortable lead. However, Triad made the biggest run of the day. It drew them into a tie.

Until the fifth inning, Triad's Tony Marchetti was the only batter giving North problems. He had gone two-for-two with a double. But, the Steelers kept their hands full with the top of the Knights batting order in the fifth.

Takmajian was the starting pitcher for North and he worked four fine innings. He held the Knights scoreless while allowing just two hits and two walks. In a pre-planned move, Stegemeier lifted the senior and sent sophomore Paul Barrington to mound. Triad took the opportunity and tagged Barrington with three hits on three runs with just three batters.

"We had planned that Rich (Takmajian) would go no more than four innings this early in the season," said Stegemeier. The decision might have been a mistake. But, Stegemeier kept with Barrington and the choice paid off.

Barrington struck out two of the next three outs and shut Triad down cold. "It was Barrington's first varsity game and I'm sure he was nervous," said Stegemeier. "But, he came back and threw with some muster. In fact, both pitchers did a good job, being that they both started practice only a few weeks ago because of baseball."

Barrington wasn't the only one to come back. Following Triad's outburst, North rebounded in the next inning with the game winner. Rob Chapman drew a lead-off walk to start the sixth inning and Mike Sullivan responded with a base hit.

The Knights brewed up their own loss as the single by Sullivan eluded the centerfielder and Chapman raced all the way home. "We like to do things," said Stegemeier. "We want to make the opponents handle to ball. This was a good way to start the season."

Triad tried to reciprocate the strategy and attempted to run on North and catcher DePew. It worked one time when DePew's toss to third sailed over third baseman Hessler's outstretched glove. It allowed a Triad runner to score on the play.

But, on the other occasions, DePew was on the money as he threw out two runners trying to steal second. The second pick-off ended the game in the seventh. "Daren made two super throws to second," said Stegemeier. "I can't fault him on the throw to third, because we haven't worked on it too much."

"I was pleased with the overall performance, though. We made some defensive mental errors, but we're young and we have a whole different infield from last year. We had kids show some character today. That's good to see. If we can get decent pitching, we'll surprise some people."

The South has risen again

By PETE HAYES

Sports Editor

GRANITE CITY — It's happened. The South has indeed risen again.

Times were not too long ago when northern Illinois and the Chicago area in particular ruled the high school sports scene in this state. But times have changed.

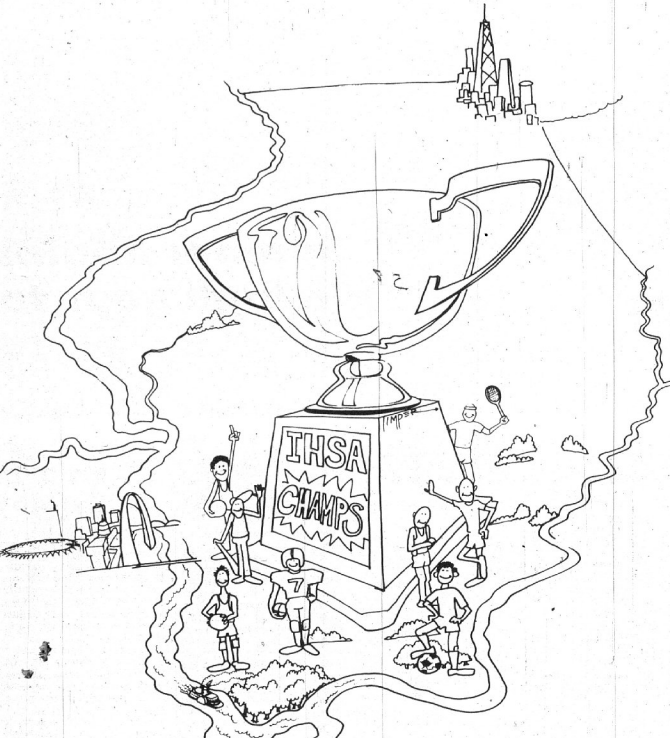

In the early years of the Illinois High School Athletic Association (which later became the Illinois High School Association we know today), the central and southern Illinois schools ruled. But in the 1950s, a trend started that until recently held true — the Chicago metropolitan area won just about everything in sight. Chicago Marshall became the first Chicago team to win a state championship in basketball in 1958.

And Chicago had its way when it comes to making the rules that govern prep sports in this state. Things have started to change. At least in the area of state champions. Southern Illinois is starting to take its hold again. But the rulesmakers are still those who sit up in the Windy City on Lake Michigan — or at least out in its suburbs.

State championships. Every high school athlete in the state of Illinois dreams of winning one — either as part of a state championship team or as an individual. Southern Illinois is beginning to win its share again.

Take basketball for instance. Just last Saturday night, Quincy became the first downstate team in as many weeks to bring home a basketball state championship when it won the Class AA (large school) championship and finished the season with a perfect 33-0 record. Of course, Madison Trojans turned the trick the week before. They won the Class A (small school) state championship — the second in five years at the school.

East St. Louis Lincoln's unbeaten girls team could bring home a third basketball championship downstate this weekend when it goes for the second straight Class AA title.

Last season, Southern Illinois ruled both classes of girls basketball. Benton won the Class A tournament. This season, the downstate's hopes will be carried in the small school class by Eldorado and Quincy Notre Dame. But basketball isn't the only sport whose championship is in the hands of a downstate school. The list is quite impressive going back over the last two school years.

To most Chicago people, "downstate" is anything south of the South Side of Chicago. But for our purposes, we'll only be considering schools south of the Quincy-Springfield-Danville area, about half-way down the state.

First, of course, is soccer. No other sport is as firm a grip of a Southern Illinois team. Granite City South has won the last five state championships and has won six out of the nine tournaments, including the very recent one. In addition, every single coaching record held in the State Finals is owned by South head coach Gene Baker. Winning one state championship in the history of a school is hard enough. But five in a row is incredible.

Then there's football. Belleville Althoff won the Class AA state title, Danville Schlarman the Class IA title and Harrisburg was runnerup in Class SA this season. In 1979, Mascoutah captured the 3A title and East St. Louis won the 5A championship.

In wrestling, Southern Illinois had a state champion and a runnerup this season. Cahokia's Keith Cruise won the heavyweight championship, and Granite City South's Dean Perkins was runnerup at 155 pounds. His loss in the title bout was his first of the season.

In addition, South's Greg Garland placed fifth in his weight class.

In golf, Carmi High School had an amazing five-straight championship.

Pierce named to National team...

Special to

the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — If you're voted to the All-State team in a sport, well, that's one thing. When you're named to the All-American squad, that's something else. What more can be done? Tony Pierce has found a way.

Pierce wrapped up those honors in his senior year as goalie for the state championship Granite City South soccer Warriors in 1979. But, after his freshman year at the University of Connecticut, Pierce has been picked to play on the National Youth Soccer Team.

Pierce completed an outstanding first season for the Huskies of Connecticut, seeing considerable playing time in the goal. In fact, Pierce's first varsity game saw him shutout the powerful Billikins from St. Louis University, 2-0.

He played in eight varsity games and came away with an unblemished record, allowing just four goals. His complete record for Connecticut was 15-1. With that kind of performance Pierce was chosen by the head coach of the National Youth Team, Walt Chyzowich and his assistant, Bob Gaudier.

His talents will be greatly welcomed as the youth team travels to Europe to compete against the national squad from Switzerland on April 13. Pierce's first encounter with international soccer will take him to Rome, Italy on April ninth where the youth team will have four days of training at the National Soccer Training School.

Once in Bellinzona, Switzerland, the squad will play two games against the national team in an eight nation international tourney. But for Pierce, it is a very big step towards being considered for the World Youth Cup in Australia and possibly the 1984 Olympic games in Los Angeles, California.

The National Youth Team is actually the first step in the eventual selection of the United States Olympic Soccer Team. From the games in Switzerland, if the coaches feel that Pierce fills the profile of a competitive player at the international level, he will be picked to play on the team that will then travel to Mexico in June.

Should the coaches like what they see in Pierce's progress on the international soccer level, he will then be chosen to play in the National Youth Sports Festival held in Syracuse, New York in July. It is sponsored by the United States Olympic Committee. The final stage would take Pierce to the Olympic Friendship Tournament at the Olympic Training Camp in Colorado. The September tourney will consist of games with Argentina, Bermuda, Canada and Mexico.

After watching and coaching him, if Pierce fits the coaches' expectations of a world cup

...Baker tabbed as All-American

Special to

the Press-Record

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. — Mike Baker, the outstanding distance runner from Granite City High School North who is now a junior at Illinois State University, has been tabbed as an all-American by finishing seventh overall in the three-mile run at last week's National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Indoor Track and Field Championships in Detroit, Mich.

Baker, who was one of the top long distance runners in track and one of the top country runners in the state while running for the Steelers at GCHS North, was the second American to finish the race at Detroit. He finished the three-mile event in a time of 13:39.6.

Baker is Illinois State University's fourth All-American in track and field since 1979.

He (Baker) just did a superb job," said Illinois State track and field coach John Coughlin. "Finishing seventh overall and being the second American runner is just a fantastic job."

The Quad Cities' other representative at the NCAA Indoor Track and Field Meet, Madison's sophomore Earnest Davenport, did not fare as well in his event. His one-mile relay team was disqualified in the preliminary heats because of a foul in one of the exchanges. Other members of the team were senior Brian Little and freshmen Terry Menefee and Jerry Monix.

Coughlin, however, was still pleased with the performances. "They ran wreal well," he said. "We were just in a situation where we committed a foul. And I thought the foul was a questionable call."

"I was pleased with all of our distance runner," he continued. "They competed exceptionally well against the best runners in America."

Junior Rusty Billbruck, who came into the NCAA championships with one of the best throws in Midwest in the Midwest in the 35-pound shot, threw a hammer (throw) finished twelfth in the Detroit meet with a toss of 57 feet, five inches.

Freshman Mike Kirk qualified for the NCAA Indoor Meet in the 1,000 yard run, but did not compete because of the flu.

The University of Texas-El Paso, behind 1980 Olympic silver medalist Suleiman Nyanbuli of Tanzania, took the team championship for the second straight season with a record-setting performance of 76 points.

'Templetown' is established

ST. LOUIS — For the second year in a row, Gary Templeton will purchase beer seat tickets and distribute them free to underprivileged and handicapped children in the St. Louis area. Templeton, who established his "Templetown" during the 1980 season, will expand it in number of games for 1981. The Cardinal shortstop has purchased 40 box seats for each of the 52 home games beginning in mid-May through June, July and August, in section 168 along the third base line. Also for the second year in a row, the members of "Garry's Gang," who sit in Templetown will each receive a free tee-shirt with the Coca-Cola Bottling Company of St. Louis. The white tee-shirt will have a picture of Templeton and the name "Garry's Gang" in red.

Any groups interested in writing to Templeton should call the Cardinal promotions office at 421-3050.

Trojans run over Knights

MADISON — It took them four tries, but the Madison Trojans won their first coal track meet here Tuesday.

After taking a thumping at the hands of Cahokia earlier in the week, Madison pounded strong, beating Triad 89-50. The Trojans' dual meet record now stands at 1-4.

Madison couldn't buy a first place spot against Cahokia, but it managed to run all over the Knights. The Trojans took first place in 14 of the 17 events they competed in.

by Trojan Shawn Brown at 25.2. Tyrone Manzy was third. His time was 25.81.

Madison continued its run for first as Santos Howard won the 440 yard dash. His time was 59.0 seconds. Raymond Price had to take a back seat in the 880 yard run. He placed second at 2:22.1. George Leonard was well off the pace, but still placed in third for the Trojans with a time of 2:37.0.

The mile run was all Triad, however. Madison managed a third just the same. The Trojans Gary finished with a time of 5:31.7.

As the meet headed into the relays, it belonged to the Trojans. They won all the relay events. The team of A.C. Ware, Manzy, Brown and Fuller took a first in the 440 yard at 48.4. The latter three Trojans joined up again with Bernard Harper adding to the group as Madison took the 880 yard relay. Their time was 1:41.8. The Madison mile relay team kept up its winning ways as the foursome of Fuller, Harper, Michael Young and Gregory Waters pulled in another first. They finished at 4:07.9.

In the two mile relay, Madison took first. Leonard, Howard, Gary and Price teamed up to record a time of 12:2. Madison looked impressive in the hurdles as it finished one-two in both the 120 high hurdles and 330 low hurdles. Howard was the first place finisher for the Trojans in the 120 with a time of 20.9 seconds. Gary came in second at 21.1.

Howard was forced into a second in the 330 lows as teammate Leonard placed first at 48.8 seconds. Howard's time was 53.2. The Trojans pretty well dominated the field events as Harper took a first in the pole vault at a height of nine feet.

The triple jump belonged to Madison, too. It placed one-two when Young took a first with a jump that distanced 33 feet, 11 and three-quarter inches. Cedric Wilson grabbed second for the Trojans with a jump of 31 feet, four and a half inches. Madison won yet another first in the long jump as Brown hurled himself 17 feet, 10 and a half inches. Young took a third at 17 feet, four and one quarter inches.

Third was Madison could manage in the high jump. Gary took that place with a leap of five foot even.

Jeffrey Robertson was the best of the throwers in the discus. The Trojan finished in first with a throw of 113 feet, nine inches.

Harper won his second field event when he finished first in the shot put. His winning toss was 42 feet, three and one half inches.

Johnny Latham of Madison grabbed a third with a measurement of 38 feet, 11 inches.

Geisler to Classic

GRANITE CITY — Drew Geisler, a senior at Granite City South and a member of the Warrior track team, received a special invitation this week. He was invited to compete in the Track Classic IV meet at Proviso West High School at 7 p.m. Friday.

The meet, held just once a year, is a showcase of the most outstanding indoor track performances thus far this season. Running the mile, Geisler's best time was 4:29.4. According to South head track coach Mel Bunting, there was only two times faster than Geisler. Invitations went out to 10 other milers in the state and Geisler is just one of two area runners to be asked to run in the meet. Bunting wasn't sure, but he thinks a half mile from Belleville was also asked to compete.

Plans are being made to see if Geisler will get the chance to participate in this special event. "We have to get some details ironed out whether Drew can make it to the meet or not," said Bunting. "He has to run in the Belleville East Invitational the next morning, so we have to get things straightened out."

Booster dinner

MADISON — The Madison Booster Club will be honoring the Madison Trojans, at a dinner-dance, Friday-March 27, at 8 p.m. at the Venice Recreation Center.

Everyone is welcome. There will be free admission.

Schoolfield, Cougars swing into '81 season

By DEB FRUEND
For the Press-Record
EDWARDSVILLE

The Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville women's softball Cougars have started the season with a 3-2 record. The Cougars are on their spring trip, which includes Missouri and Oklahoma.

SIUUE has been hampered with injuries as the starting battery for the Cougars is out with broken bones. Pitcher Becki Saylor broke her left leg as she fractured the distal end of the fibula. According to SIUE Coach Cindy Jones, Saylor will be out at least six weeks.

Amy Fry, the starting catcher for the Cougars, will be out of play at least another two weeks. She broke her fourth metacarpal on the right hand.

Shorstop Cheryl Schoolfield of Granite City has been resting a pulled muscle in her left shoulder, which is her power-throwing arm. "Cheryl has been resting her shoulder, but I hope that we can use her in limited action starting this week (March 23)," said Coach Jones.

The Cougars faced Southwest Baptist College Saturday (March 21) at Bolivar, Mo., and lost 11-

CHERYL SCHOOLFIELD

2. Terri Lamb pitched the eight-inning, and Cathy Burn caught for SIUE. Cathy Biondo smashed a base hit in the second inning and was brought in by Burn to score the first run of the season for the Cougars. The other run was scored by Cindy Rakers, who walked and was brought in on a single by Patti Sussen.

Sunday (March 22) the Cougars split a doubleheader with Missouri Southern State University of Joplin. The first game went 5-2 in SIUE's favor. Lamb was the winning pitcher, and Burn made up the other half of the batting order. SIUE's Denise Schaake singled in the third inning to bring home Nancy Swain to score the first run on the Cougars' side of the board. Patti Scott scored the second run in the fourth inning on a base hit by Rakers and followed by a base hit by Swain.

Maggie Dyer blasted a double in the fifth inning for the Cougars but couldn't get across home plate. The Cougars scored their last three runs in the seventh to clinch the victory.

Denise Schaake made her pitching debut in the second game of the doubleheader and gave up four hits and one walk. SIUE was held to three hits. "We just couldn't seem to get our bats going, but I was happy with Schaake's first performance on the mound," commented Coach Jones.

The Cougars will face Northeast Oklahoma A & M, Augsburg College and Northeast Oklahoma State University to round out their spring trip. They will host the Gateway Invitational Tourney Friday and Saturday (March 27-28) with play beginning at 10 a.m. Friday.

Cougar bats strong in N.M. tournament

ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO — The Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville baseball Cougars are in the midst of an early season road trip. One that took them to the University of Mexico Turquoise Tourney. According to SIUE Sports Information Director Al Barnes, the Cougars are playing a round-robin tournament that will end Saturday.

The Cougars have all ready posted two wins and upped their season record to 4-2. Beating the host school 4-3 earlier in the week, SIUE, behind the strong pitching of Chris Dawby and fine relief help of Doug Rains, edged the University of Nebraska at Omaha, 7-6, Wednesday. Rains, a 1978 graduate of Granite City North, hurled two and one third innings of relief, allowing just one run. The win avenged an earlier loss at the hands of the Mavericks.

The Cougars next contest, in the tourney will pit them against Southwest Missouri State Friday afternoon. On the final day of competition, half of the SIUE squad will stay in Albuquerque and take on the host school in a 10 a.m. game Saturday. The other Cougars will fly back to battle it out with the Fighting Illini from the University of Illinois in a doubleheader contest at 1 p.m. on Cougar field Saturday.

South (Continued)

nship streak ended this season. But last season, the Bulldogs won it and had the individual state champion in the Class A meet. This season, Belleville West's Jerry Haas (brother of professional golfer Jay Haas) won the Class AA individual title. Last season, the top Class AA girls golfer was Amy Read from Olney.

Petersburg-Porta High won the Class A state cross country championship. Downstate Illinois 1 annually represented by some of the top distance runners at the state meets.

Then, of course, there's baseball. Last season, both state champions were from the Metro-East area. First, Alton Marquette captured the Class A championship. The following week, Collinsville, paced by an amazing performance by MVP pitcher Mark Campbell, won the Class AA state championship.

The Kahoks' toughest game at the State Finals was in the semifinals with arch-rival Edwardsville, also a Metro-East club. The second-place team in the small school baseball tournament last season was Mount Carmel. The season before that, Mount Carmel competed as a Class AA school — and finished second in the state that year too.

In track and field, it's hard to compete against East St. Louis' teams, whether in girls or boys action. Last season, Lincoln won the Class AA girls title and the boys finished high. East St. Louis Sr. is annually a top team to beat in boys competition. Madison is usually a state Class A power. And Robinson won the 1979 Class A boys title.

Let's not forget Okawville, Madison and Effingham in last year's boys state basketball finals. Okawville defeated Madison for third place in the Class A meet. Effingham, which also made it to the Elite Eight this season, placed second in the Class AA tournament, losing by only eight points to Russell Cross and his Chicago Marley team. Effingham has an enrollment of about 890 students.

Lady Cougars take two from Oklahomans

AUGSBURG, OKLAHOMA — Traveling seemed to agree with the Lady Cougar softball team of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. The women played down south here Tuesday and came away with a doubleheader win over the host school, Augsburg College, 4-2, and Northeast Oklahoma State, 3-2.

The Cougars used a corp of strong hitting to dump Augsburg College. Junior Cheryl Schoolfield, a 1978 graduate from Granite City North, headed the attack as she pounded out two hits in two trips to the plate. Nancy Swain and Pat Sussen each collected two hits in three attempts as the Cougars batted out seven.

SIU came up with a two run lead in the second inning and more in the third to wrap up the win. Terri Lamb was the winning pitcher.

Later the same day, the Cougars came back from a 2-1 deficit to edge out the Lady Reds of Northeast Oklahoma State. Falling behind early, SIUE tied the game with a single run in the second inning. The Cougars added another tally in the fourth to regain the lead. It proved to be the difference as the contest was called after six innings because of darkness.

Hurling the game, Lamb picked up her second win of the day and improved her pitching mark to 5-1. The Cougars increased their overall record to 5-2.

Sumner begins season in high gear for SIUE

GAINESVILLE — Jane Sumner represented Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville women's track team at the Gator Relays at the University of Florida last week. She threw the discus 141'1" to place second among 27 competitors.

This throw also qualifies her for the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) National Division II Championships in Indiana, Penn. The qualifying throw needed was 138'.

"I was pleased with my throw, and I think it was a good start for the season. Now I hope I can start building from here and keep improving all season," commented Sumner.

Cindy Crapper from the University of Kentucky took first place with a throw of 149'5". Michigan State University took third with a throw of 137'4" by Polly Prouty.

SIUE Coach Lori Stark said, "This was Jane's quickest start, and I think she has taken up where she left off last year." Sumner was throwing in the 135'-150' range last year at the end of the season.

Sumner was happy about the scheduling of the Florida meet. "I wanted to start the season off with a big meet so I could sort of see what the competition was like all over the country. Now I'm really happy I got to participate."

The senior athlete will be trying to improve her personal best throw of 155' which she threw last year to qualify for the AIAW National Championships. She was the Illinois AIAW champion in the discus competition last year, also.

The business management-marketing major has a tough act to follow after last year's season. With a beginning throw of 141'1", she is off to a good start.

GC swimmers place in 'Y' state meet

GLENBROOK, ILL. — Three of five swimmers from Granite City on the Edwardsville YMCA Swim Club placed in the YMCA State Swimming Meet held at Glenbrook South High School here Saturday and Sunday.

Granite City's Kelly Reed, swimming in the 200 meter medley relay, placed third. It was the highest finish of the three place getters.

Mike McCormick took a sixth in the 50 meter breaststroke. In his 100 meter individual medley event he took another sixth place.

Involved in three events, Jennifer Baker, as a member in the 100 meter medley relay, took a fourth. She also swam in the 100 meter freestyle relay and her team placed twelfth. In her only individual event, Baker grabbed another twelfth in the 25 meter freestyle.

Swimmers placing first through sixth received medals, while those who finished seventh through twelfth were given ribbons. Of the 55 teams entered in the state meet, Joliet YMCA took the overall team championship.

Park District seeks players

The annual Granite City Park District baseball parade kicking off the youth baseball season will be held on Saturday, May 9.

Openings remain for teams in all leagues. About 30 boys or girls born in 1973 are needed to fill rosters in the first-year Atom Division league and about the same amount, born in 1971, is needed to fill vacancies in the first-year Bantam Division league. The atom league is designated as a T-ball league.

A team is required to have at least 13 players, but not more than 15, to join any of the park district leagues. More information can be obtained by contacting the park office or by calling 678-3059.

Racquetball lessons

GRANITE CITY — Beginning racquetball lessons for men and women are scheduled to start March 30 at the Tri-City Area YMCA.

The lessons will meet from 6 to 7 p.m. on Monday and Wednesday for two weeks. Lucy Tueth, the YMCA's Program Director, will teach the class, which will cover rules, court manners, strokes, serves, and strategies.

The cost for the four classes is $8. Registration must be made at least one week in advance at the YMCA, 2001 Edison Avenue in Granite City.

And for Pierce, it was an anticipated surprise. He was told all ready last year to obtain a passport, that he would be an alternate for the World Youth Cup Team. He certainly has his work cut out. But, seeing what he has to look forward to, a little work is not going to be all that bad.

State highway program slashed

A greatly reduced highway repair and construction program totaling $550 million for fiscal year 1982 was announced Thursday by Illinois Transportation Secretary John D. Kramer.

"The road repair program for the coming year is all that can be done with existing revenues. It is the smallest road repair and construction program in more than 25 years in terms of real buying power," Kramer said.

"The $550 million dollar program has broken the momentum of the progress made during the last four years in which we have improved more than 2,800 miles of highways and repaired or replaced 1,058 bridges. Although we are doing as much as we can with available resources, the $550 million program is unacceptable. As a result, Governor Thompson will address a joint session of the General Assembly on March 24 to outline his transportation proposal."

Included in the $550 million is $143.7 million in projects carried over from the current fiscal year's program, making the actual program level of new work for Fiscal Year 1982 $406.3 million.

"The emphasis in the fiscal 1982 program will be on the repair of the existing system in an effort to protect as much as possible of the $50 billion of past highway investment. The need to concentrate all of our resources on the existing system," Kramer said, "unfortunately defers the construction of many major projects, such as the U.S. 51 freeway, Interstate 255 in the Madison-St. Clair counties area, and the North Peoria Bypass."

"This program level is unacceptable because of the effect on the state's economy of a poor road system. It also will cost the individual motorist more. As a result of an increasing number of bad roads, each licensed driver in Illinois may be forced to spend up to an additional $200 annually for wasted fuel, increased tire wear and higher repair bills for brakes, steering and suspension systems."

"In addition, this year's highway program generates some 27,000 construction and supplier-related jobs in Illinois, and it is estimated that another 37,000 jobs are generated by the ripple effect of increased earnings provided by the highway program. If left at the $550 million level, next year's program will result in an estimated reduction of 11,000 jobs. This comes at a time when the construction industry is already experiencing a higher-than-average unemployment rate of 12 to 15 percent."

"By deferring road repairs now they will only be more costly in the future. The ultimate cost of road and bridge repair could double as pavement and bridges deteriorate to the point where simple resurfacing and repair will not suffice."

"The Fiscal Year 1982 program—as was the case this year—will continue to be squeezed by rising costs and declining revenues. By June 30, the end of this current fiscal year, the state will have lost more than $327 million in federal funds. Further aggravating this shortage is the decline in motor fuel usage that has resulted in a loss of more than $68 million in state revenues since the fall of 1979."

"To finance the $550 million program the Department has undertaken an austerity program, and we are assuming the continued elimination of diversions as well as the continued transfer of sales taxes into the Road Fund."

We have reallocated funds from the Department's operations by deferring permanent improvements to Department facilities, and have imposed a hiring freeze that has already resulted in a cutback of more than 300 full time positions and 450 part jobs will be eliminated through attrition by the end of Fiscal Year 1982.

"The financing for Fiscal Year 1982 assumes approval by Congress of the cuts proposed by the President and no new state revenues for the road program. However, the development of the final federal funding levels or an increase in the state revenues could significantly change the road program."

The proposed $550 million 1982 road program is comprised of $322 million in federal funds, $205.3 million in state funds of which $105.3 million is state Road Funds and $100 million in bond funds, and $22.4 million in local matching funds.

Among the major projects and the impact of the reduced program level are:

1-255 (East St. Louis Bypass), construction for the completion of the section from I-64 to Illinois 15 proposed; delays the Illinois 15 to Illinois 3 section by one year. Nearly $201 million has been invested to date with a remaining cost of $246 million.

Pay attention to tree polination

By CHRIS DOLL, Area Garden Adviser

Pay attention to pollination requirements of tree fruit when planting your home orchard. If you don't, fruit yields may be disappointing. Most peach, nectarine, and sour cherry varieties are "self-fruitful" and do not require pollination by another variety. These trees will produce normal crops when planted alone or in groups.

But "self-unfruitful" trees need to be pollinated by pollen of a different variety. Pollen from another tree of the same variety is not adequate. Plums, sweet cherries, pears, and some apples fall in this category. For instance, Delicious apple trees usually will not produce a normal apple variety such as Jonathan or Golden Delicious. Some types of flowering crab apples will pollinate apple varieties, but guidelines are not available.

Bees are the most important pollinating insect. They may fly far enough to pollinate several plantings in an urban or suburban area surrounding their hive or colony. This, if apple or crab apple trees are present in a neighborhood, two varieties of apples in a home orchard may not be necessary, but is preferable.

Some unusual conditions exist in tree fruit pollinating requirements. Seckel pear will not pollinate Bartlett pear, but Bartlett will pollinate Seckel. Winesap and Stayman Winesap have sterile pollen and will not pollinate any apple variety. Sometimes these facts are quoted in nursery catalogs but generally are not. When in doubt, plant two or more varieties.

Vegetable gardens are the "in" thing for 1981. Many stories are being told about the benefits of gardening to help stretch the budget and improve the quality of life. Gardening can aid in reducing the food budget by due consideration must be given to the growing economic reports, and expectations should be reasonable.

In 1974, a 28-by-30 foot experimental garden at the Dixon Springs Experiment Station, Simpson, Ill., yielded 912 pounds of vegetables plus 152 ears of sweet corn. These were given a harvest-time of $165. A Duchess County, New York, demonstration 30-by-25 foot garden resulted in $218 in produce. Inflation has probably doubled these values figures. But the value to a family is determined by how much is produced and utilized.

Vegetables differ in yields and values. For instance, snap beans and tomatoes should yield a pound per square foot of soil. But broccoli produces an average of 0.5 pound per square foot and asparagus may only yield 0.2 pound per square foot. Garden value then depends on these yields, a price per pound, and how much the family will eat.

Costs of gardening range from very low to very high. The high costs develop when large or expensive equipment is purchased for small gardens, or when expensive plants and accessories are used.

Seed costs are a small percentage of the expected returns. A packet of snap bean seed should plant about 20 feet of row and yield 20 pounds of beans worth $5 to $10. Hybrid tomato seeds cost 2 to 3 cents a piece, and should grow into a plant that will yield 10 pounds of fruit worth $3 to $5, depending on market prices.

Other costs of gardening are fertilizers, pesticides, mulches, stakes, equipment, and sometimes even land rental. But some of these can be offset by the benefits of fuel savings in driving to markets and the convenience of home-grown products. The other benefits of gardening may also offset the costs. These are: exercise, fresh air, family togetherness, and garden-to-table freshness and flavor.

To maximize the returns from the garden: (1) grow what the family likes to eat; (2) estimate family needs before planting; (3) grow quality that can't be bought; (4) utilize the best gardening practices that result in high quality and high yields. By doing this, a garden should be a profitable and enjoyable experience.

Spring has sprung — a little early this year

By CHRIS DOLL, Area Garden Adviser

March 1981 finds garden soils in Southwestern Illinois in a tillable and plantable condition. This means that early planting of the vegetable garden is possible, and only the calendar prevents gardeners from planting everything.

It is a good time to plant the early season hardy vegetables such as greens, lettuce, onions, radish and spinach.

It is also possible to gamble on the less hardy crops such as beets, broccoli, cabbage, carrots, peas and potatoes. Some of the latter may be injured by late season freezes, but this is the gamble incurred by early planting.

Perennial vegetables such as asparagus and rhubarb should be planted now. All fruit crops may be planted as soon as the nursery stock arrives.

The early spring has pushed growth of tree fruits to the point that it is too late to apply dormant sprays. Thus, any pest normally controlled by the dormant spray will require control by other means during the growing season.

It is not too late to prune, however. Pruning may continue until the job is done or until sap flow begins, the plants will bleed or drip sap. But this doesn't hurt the yield. However, try to prune before the buds swell. The early growth of fruit plants is not detrimental unless a freeze or late frost occurs to kill the developing flower bud or flower.

Cool temperatures tend to delay growth and let the season catch up with the plant growth.

In Good Spirits!

by GEORGE CREWS

What do Zythos, Corvesa, Kul and Carveza have in common? All are native names for a 600-year old beverage — beer. The English drink a beverage similar to beer during the Dark Ages called bride ale. In fact, the word "bride" comes from the custom of consuming so much bride ale at wedding ceremonies. Later, the Flemish added an all-important ingredient to their recipe, hops. Made from fermented barley (malt), hops, yeast and water, European beer is considered by some to be superior to domestic because it contains no additives. Many U.S. beers contain rice or corn additives to increase shelf life and to speed up the aging process. Whether the preference is imported or domestic, light or dark (or the lower-calorie beers) all have helped to make beer the third most popular and universal beverage following water and tea.

★★ AN OPEN LETTER TO ALL CITIZENS OF GRANITE CITY! ★★

Since March 15, 1977, Granite City has progressed with the establishment and continuing operation of the City Ambulance Service. We feel that this is one of the major accomplishments of the Schuler Administration. We wish to discuss with you why we feel this service is of such vital importance to our community.

FACT

Our Ambulance Service is really an "Emergency Medical Services" system. When someone calls us, he or she is not merely receiving an ambulance, but a fully trained and State Certified crew, knowledgeable in the many aspects of "on the scene" emergency care. The patient is plugged into an emergency medical "system" whereby Doctors and Nurses at the hospital are informed of the condition of the patient, the treatment rendered, and the estimated time of arrival.

FACT

Since our inception four years ago, our City Ambulance Service has assisted, treated, and transported over 14,800 patients in the Granite City area. We are proud of this achievement. We are also proud of the fact that if unexpected illness or accident strikes you or a loved one, we will be on the scene assisting in an average of 3 to 6 minutes.

FACT

We are constantly striving to better our skills for you. Seven men have become State Certified Paramedics under the City Ambulance Service. Eight of our members have been Certified as "Emergency Rescue Technicians." Four of our members are Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) Instructors. In addition many of our members have attended various seminars to better familiarize themselves with the latest techniques in emergency care.

*FACT

In 1981 Heart Attacks will claim the lives of 70 Granite City residents. 32 of these lives can be saved with a properly functioning Ambulance Service.

*FACT

In 1981 500 Granite City residents will suffer serious accidents; 22 will die, 80 will suffer lasting disability. Proper and Immediate emergency care will result in a 20-35% reduction in loss of lives and suffering.

*FACT

In 1981 100 accidental poisonings will occur in Granite City (90% in children), and 2 will die.

*FACT

In 1981 16 Granite Cityians will be seriously burned, 2 will die.

*FACT

A properly functioning Ambulance Service will show a 20-35% REDUCTION in loss of lives and productivity.

FACT

* All statistics courtesy of the American Heart Association and the Advanced Coronary Treatment Foundation; based on occurrences per 100,000 population.

Our membership is active in the community. We make many charitable contributions to needy individuals and organizations. We conduct CPR classes for the general public, and we are always available for free Blood Pressure checks. We are here to serve you both on and off duty.

In summation, we of the Granite City Ambulance Service feel that the needs of all of us as citizens will best be served by re-electing the man whose farsightedness and hard work gave us this PROGRESSIVE and VITAL City Service.

MAYOR PAUL SCHULER

PAID FOR BY THE "COMMITTEE OF THE GRANITE CITY AMBULANCE SERVICE TO RE-ELECT SCHULER!"
THOMAS D. VRIEZE, CHAIRMAN

18 candidates for Nameoki Township positions

Progressive Action Party

The candidates for election to Nameoki Township offices on the Progressive Action Party are sharing a common platform. The party's statement follows.

"The Progressive Action Party consists of a group of interested residents of Nameoki Township with a broad range of proven experience in business and labor who have united together to offer the voters a choice on April 7.

"Our party offers a well-balanced, geographical representation from throughout the township. We feel that with the business experience our party has to offer, we can provide the fiscal control and leadership needed in order to capitalize on the new opportunities Nameoki Township now will have with the construction of the new sewer system. We will see that the township receives its share of the new residential and commercial growth that the new system will make available."

HARRY BRIGGS

Harry A. Briggs, former Nameoki Township supervisor for 16 years, is running for supervisor of the township on the United With Progress ticket in the April 7 balloting.

Briggs was born in Tulsa, Okla., and has lived in this area for 45 years. He operates the Pizza Pit Restaurant in Ponton Beach.

He was a Madison County Board member for 16 years and is currently president of the board of trustees of the Long Lake Fire Protection District.

Briggs also is a member of Masonic Lodge 885, Scottish Rite Bodies and Ainal Temple.

Briggs said, "I feel that my past experience as a supervisor makes me well-qualified to again serve the people of Nameoki Township."

He and his wife and four children reside at 4265 Lake Drive.

RICHARD KISMER

Richard Kismer, 36, is a candidate for supervisor of Nameoki Township on the Progressive Action Party ticket.

Born in Granite City, he has been a resident of Nameoki Township for 30 years. Kismer has been self-employed as an insurance broker for MFA Insurance Co. for 11 years, and for four years has been a licensed real estate salesman.

A 1962 graduate of Madison High School, Kismer attended Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and Belleville Area College.

He served two years in the United States Army, one of which was served in Vietnam. He was awarded the Vietnamese Service Medal and the Army Commendation Medal for Meritorious Service and Outstanding Leadership Ability.

Kisner is a member of the Tri-City Area Chamber of Commerce, Madison Amvets Post 294, VFW Post 1300, American Legion Post 113, Madison-Venice Rotary Club and Elks Lodge 1063. He also was the 1979 chairman of the solicitation for the United Way's insurance and real estate division.

He is married, with one son, and the family resides at 4051 Kathy Drive.

DOUGLAS TEETOR

Douglas Teetor, incumbent town clerk of Nameoki Township, is seeking re-election on the United With Progress ticket.

In Nameoki Township, Teetor was auditor for two years and has been clerk for 10 years.

He has lived in the Quad-Cities all of his life and attended Madison schools and Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Teetor served four years in the U.S. Navy and four years in the Naval Reserve. He has been employed at Granite City Steel for 23 years and is an engineer in the industrial engineering department.

He attends Trinity Tabernacle Church in Madison and currently is serving his 19th year as church treasurer and a member of the board of trustees. Teetor was Sunday School superintendent for two years and assistant for three years.

Teetor states while he has served as town clerk, "many administrative improvements have been made.

Comprehensive accounting systems have been set up for all funds. The trustees are provided with up-to-date budget statistics prior to each meeting and budget preparation assistance is provided to the Township and highway department."

He resides at 2231 Bern Ave. with his wife and two children.

Donald Ridgeway, running for clerk of Nameoki Township on the Progressive Action Party ticket, is Donald Lee Ridgeway, 54.

An 11-year resident of Nameoki Township, he was born in Granite City and attended Madison schools and Granite City schools.

Ridgeway has been an administrative assistant at St. Elizabeth Medical Center for 11 years. He is a graduate of Beneficial School of Finance and Purchasing Practices.

He served four years in the U.S. Navy and is a member of the Ponton Beach Zoning Board, VFW Post 1300 and American Legion Post 113.

He and his wife and two sons at 30 Victoria Drive in Ponton Beach.

Harold Davis, present Nameoki Township supervisor, is a candidate for highway commissioner on the United With Progress Party slate.

Davis is a lifetime resident of the Quad-City area and resides at 2230 Shiloh Drive with his wife, Janet. They have two sons and one daughter.

A member of Local 68, United Steelworkers of America, Davis has been an electrician at Granite City Steel for 26 years.

He served on the Granite City School Board for nine years, holding several offices, and was president of the Long Lake Fire Protection District for two years and trustee for three years.

Davis is a past master of Masonic Lodge 877, past patron of Order of Eastern Star, Granite Chapter 650, a member of Ainal Temple Shrine and the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce.

During his term as supervisor, Davis and the board obtained, among other things, a van with a wheelchair lift, energy assistance funds to help low-income families with heating bills, sewer hook-up grant funds for low-income families, and weatherization funds to insulate homes.

Davis said he has responsibly utilized tax funds and obtained a large amount of state and federal funds for Nameoki Township.

He feels he is, "the most qualified candidate for the highway commissioner position. All of the road rebuilding and resurfacing, such as asphalt work or stiling and chipping in Nameoki Township, is contracted out. The highway department, primarily patches the roads, plows snow, cleans ditches and cuts weeds along the road. It is imperative that the highway commissioner be a good administrator, capable of handling contract work and bidding practices."

United With Progress Party

Candidates for election to Nameoki Township offices on the United With Progress Party have pledged to continue the progress made by the incumbents on the party the last four years.

In their brochure, they pledge, "The United With Progress team will work hard to provide the best service in the most efficient manner. They have pinpointed approximately $170,000 in waste and inefficiency in the highway department operation that can be eliminated during the next term of office with a new highway commissioner.

Harry Briggs, as your new supervisor, and Harold Davis as your new highway commissioner can provide the "total administration" that Nameoki Township needs. Working together, there are unlimited possibilities. Your township trustees have and will continue to work throughout the township every week, reviewing the progress of the various projects and programs they must act upon."

Experience is cited by Town Clerk Douglas Teetor, Tax Assessor Carl Macios and Tax Collector Freida Ballew as they seek re-election pledging to continue to work to reduce costs, provide better service and provide tax assistance and tax reductions.

Nealie is the Ingram's first child.

Hospital use rises last year in region

Increasing utilization of hospital services by patients in all categories continues to drive up hospital costs, according to a just-completed year-end analysis made by the Hospital Association of Metropolitan St. Louis. During 1980, overall patient utilization went up 2.4 percent while total hospital operating expenditures rose 17.5 percent.

For the first time in three years, the annual increase in hospital expenditures was above the Consumer Price Index, which was 12.4 percent for 1980. Generally, a 1 percent increase in patient utilization will bring about an 83 percent increase in hospital expenses.

The cost per patient day and the cost per case rose 14.8 percent and 15.7 percent, respectively.

Events to honor foreign students

SIUE foreign students will display their cultures when the university hosts International Day on Wednesday, April 1, and International Night, Saturday, April 4. Sponsored by the International Students Council and the International Hospitality Program, both events are free and open to the public.

International Day will be from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the University Center's Goshen Lounge. Cultural displays, exhibitions, information on countries, and cultural movies will be included.

International Night will be from 6 to 10 in the Communications Building. The evening will feature cultural performances, a fashion show of native costumes, and tasting of food from various parts of the world.

Circuit redistricting would reduce number of judges

A proposal of the Illinois House Judiciary 1 Redistricting Subcommittee for redrawing Circuit Court boundaries, the first geographic change in the courts since 1957, would reduce the number of judges in Madison County, it was learned this week.

Unlike legislative districts, there is no requirement in the state constitution or in federal court decisions requiring a "one man-one vote" reapportionment of court districts.

The intention of the recommendations is to more equalize the current widely varying caseload between circuits, the subcommittee states in its report.

The report cites 1979 court statistics showing the number of cases filed per full circuit judge ranges from 417 in Calhoun County to more than 1,600 in two Chicago-suburban-area circuits.

Under the proposal, Madison would be one of 12 new single-county circuits. There are presently only two—Cook and DuPage counties.

The new circuit would be designated by letters instead of numbers under the proposal. Madison County would be known as the "P" Circuit.

One section of the subcommittee's report would reduce the number of judges in which is now the 3rd Circuit Court of Madison and Bond counties, which has a higher caseload per circuit judge (1,185) than most other downstate circuits.

The present eight full circuit judges would be reduced to six under the proposal. The number of associate judges for Madison County, nine, would remain the same.

Resident judges in smaller counties, such as Calhoun and Greene, probably would be eliminated under the proposed changes.

Third Circuit Chief Judge Horace Calvo said it would be "very difficult" to operate with fewer full circuit judges without overburdening the associate judges more.

He said the subcommittee's proposal to put Bond County into a circuit with several other small counties to the east and making Madison a separate circuit was "not of great importance."

Illinois Court Administrator Roy Guiley, however, strongly disagreed with the proposal to create more single-county circuits, such as Madison.

He argued it was an advantage to both Madison and Bond counties to be in the same circuit, since when judges in Madison County excused themselves from hearing a case, the Bond County resident judge could be brought in, an vice-versa.

The state constitution prohibits the legislature from eliminating the position of any incumbent judges. Any of the reductions proposed in the report would occur when the current judges' terms expire.

The topic was, "A Commitment to Share," and eight Granite City high school students demonstrated their willingness to share their time and talents while competing in the annual Granite City Optimist Club's oratorical contest Thursday afternoon.

Each speaker saw the topic in a different light and members of the club expressed surprise at the depth of thought and talent used to express their topic.

"I'm sure glad I don't have to judge these speeches," was a statement made by several Optimist members following each speech. Club President Jim Winning expressed the feelings of all of the club members after the speeches, telling the students, "You're all winners."

The first-place winner among the young women, Mary Turck of Granite City High School North, saw "A Commitment to Share" as a personal responsibility for each person to use a smile, a few kind words and his talents to try and brighten the day for others. "We can bring out the best of a person if we will all give a part of ourselves," she told the club members with a warm smile.

Second place among the young women was Amy Hartman of South high school, who told the Optimists that she felt a commitment to share in the concern for abused children. She said that statistics indicate approximately 76,000 children will be abused this year and everyone should become involved in fighting child abuse. "If you suspect child abuse, please get involved," she asked, telling Optimists that the toll-free telephone number to report suspected child abuse is 1-800-25-

ABUSE. "It is our responsibility," she concluded.

Jim Crews of South high school, first place winner among the young men said sharing patriotic feelings is among the greatest things Americans can share. He said he is opposed to war, but stated, "There are three ideals worth fighting for—live, love and liberty." He concluded, "Give and share with each other the respect that America deserves."

Second place among the young men was awarded to John Withers of North who said America has always honored its commitment to share its blessings and abundances with the less fortunate. Examples of America's sharing with its people are helping the underprivileged

City workers seeking union representation

A spokesman for approximately 23 Granite City employees who want to become members of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, is charging that the city council's negotiating committee is "stalling" until after the April 7 election to recognize them as union employees.

William Dallas Jr., a spokesman for the city workers, primarily clerical workers, charged Friday that members of the negotiating committee "seem to be dragging their feet in failing to recognize AFSCME as the city workers' bargaining agent."

Dallas said that in several meetings between the two sides, no definite reason was given as to why the committee has not recognized the union.

"We have heard rumors that the timing is wrong. The original letter of our intent was read before the city council on Jan. 27 and it was referred to the negotiating committee. We have met twice with that committee since the 27th, and, once again, have been given no reason why they want to wait other than they said it needs a lot of study," Dallas contended.

He said the group does not want to negotiate salaries, at this time, and seeks only recognition.

He added, "Since we are the only group of employees left in the city not in a union, we cannot understand why the negotiating committee has failed to recognize us up to this date."

"One of the reasons given by the chairman of the negotiating committee, Fred P. Schuman, is that he did not have the time to deal with it now, since he is involved in trying to get re-elected. We have repeated again that we do not want to sit down and negotiate the salaries we have now. We just want to be recognized," Dallas added.

"He (Schuman) stated again that he has not had a chance to talk it over with the mayor and the negotiating committee, as a whole, is not against us going union, but that they do not want to deal with it at this time," he contended.

Transit board seeks controls

By ED GURNEY
A group of state legislators from this area pledged Friday to try to give the three metro-East mass transit districts control over all state and local bus subsidies.

"I think all of us agree you should have that control," State Rep. Monroe board members. No one disagreed, and the indication was that it would not be difficult to get a law passed to change control of the subsidies.

The transit boards from Madison, St. Clair and Monroe counties held a joint meeting at the St. Clair County courthouse.

Legislators present, in addition to Flinn, were State Sen. Kenneth Hall (D-East St. Louis), and State Reps. Celeste C. Stiel (R-Bellefonte), Everett Steele (R-Glen Carbon), and Sam Wolf (D-Granite City). Also present was Joe Biales, aide to State Sen. James Donawald.

The meeting was called because transit board members—Madison County's Bill Haine in particular—are dissatisfied with what they feel is a lack of control over Bi-State Transit, which provides bus service to this area. The three boards recently established sales taxes to provide a local subsidy for Bi-State.

"What we really want is an option to make a decision whether we go with Bi-State," said Vi Tucker of Collinsville, a member of the transit board from Madison County.

Haine said Bi-State officials have been cooperative. "It's just a system we feel the people on the east side are not satisfied with," said Haine.

The local sales taxes of one-fourth cent in the Madison and St. Clair counties are to be funneled through the transit boards, whose members complain they can't give it to anyone but Bi-State. The state operating subsidies go through the Illinois Department of Transportation.

Flinn said he was House sponsor of last year's law permitting establishment of the transit districts. Legislators never gave a thought to the issue of control over funds and who would provide bus service.

"I'm willing to give you all the control you want," Flinn said, "although I have serious misgivings about your ability to be successful."

Flinn was referring to the proposal that the districts operate their own system.

Richard Brauer of Belleville, chairman of the St. Clair County transit board, said he favors the counties working together to get a new bus system. Haine favors a separate system for Madison County.

Haine said the districts could cooperate on routes that go between counties. However, he thinks Madison County residents have been dissatisfied with another joint operation, the Metro-

Madison child screening, kindergarten registration

Madison public schools will conduct their annual screening of three-, four- and five-year-olds April 21, 22 and 23.

To register a child for kindergarten, the parent must present a birth certificate or some legal proof of date of birth, plus the child's immunization record, and pay a $1 registration fee.

The parent will be given health cards so that the physical and dental examinations and immunizations can be completed before the start of school.

School Code of Illinois 27-8 says, "No child will be permitted to enter kindergarten until proof of physical examination and immunization record is established."

All children upon being admitted into kindergarten, or prior to admission to any public, private or parochial school in Illinois, or upon transfer from another school system, are to present an immunization record and evidence of a physical examination. The immunization record is to include inoculations for diphtheria, tetanus, whooping cough, poliomyelitis, measles and rubella. Registration for three- and four-year-olds' screenings will be by appointment.

Included will be screening of vision, hearing, speech and language, as well as general growth and development.

The screening is a free service and will take about 30 minutes. For appointments, families may call the Blair and Harris schools between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.

The screening schedule will be: Blair School, 877-6864, 818, Tuesday, April 21, from 1 p.m. to 7 p.m.; Harris School, 877-6864, Wednesday, April 22, from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.; and Thursday, April 23, from 1 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Marshall students to jump rope for heart

Students at Marshall Elementary School will participate this year for the first time in Jump Rope for Heart, a national special event sponsored by the Illinois Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation (IAHPER) for benefit of the Heart Association.

The event will be held April 7 at Marshall Elementary School and will be coordinated by Judy Collins. Other Illinois schools and students from elementary to college level will be participating in more than 40 states March 26-April 2. March is National Physical Education and Sports Month, and the event has been endorsed by the Governor's Council on Health and Fitness.

Jump Rope for Heart will be conducted by school physical education teachers and students who organize rope-jumping competition. Members of six-student teams each jump rope, relieving each other when tiring, for a maximum of three hours.

Cash pledges collected from sponsors for each minute of their rope-jumping efforts contribute to Heart Association programs of research, to find better means of diagnosing and treating heart and blood vessel diseases; public and professional education and community service projects, such as cardiopulmonary resuscitation training and blood pressure screening. For the first time in the history of the three-year event, schools will be eligible for prizes, ranging from video tape cameras with recorders to Washington equipment. Students can win prizes which include T-shirts, jackets and warm-up suit.

Nurse volunteers sought for health fair Apr. 9-10

A health fair for Madison County residents is set for Thursday, April 9, and Friday, April 10, at the Ketterer Center of St. Elizabeth Medical Center. The fair will be open from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. on both days. It is open to everyone 18 years of age or older. The health fair consists of free health screenings — blood pressure measurements, height, weight, vision, hearing, anemia, diabetes and pulmonary screening. Also, blood work may be done for a fee of $6.

Due to the extent of resources, transportation arrangements will be limited to the Granite City-Madison area. Details are to be announced later. Church and senior citizens groups are being encouraged to organize transportation for their members.

Registered nurses are needed to work at the health fair, a spokesman said. Those interested in volunteering may call Gary Smith at 798-3385 or 798-3480 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Monday through Friday.

BPW dinner-dance March 29

Tickets are available this week for a dinner dance, scheduled Sunday, March 29, at St. Mary's Engelberg Hall, 1034 N. Second St., Washington Avenue, Madison, sponsored by the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club.

A buffet dinner, catered by Mother's Kitchen of Edwardsville, will be served between 5 p.m. and 7 p.m. March 29, with music for dancing provided by the Joey James Orchestra from 6 p.m. until 10 p.m.

The tickets, costing $10 per person, may be obtained from Topp's Bottoms Shop, 1343 Nineteenth St., the Sunny Side Up Gift Shop in Nameki Village Shopping Center or by calling Pauline Weir at 482-7229.

A series of meetings to plan the "Swing-Into-Spring" dinner dance was held by the BPW organizing committee during the weekend at Charlie's Restaurant.

Rosalie Stern, club president, was in charge and urged all BPW members and friends to support the fund raising event.

Hazel Rollins is serving as dance chairman, assisted by Ramona Burnett, co-chairman.

Others attending the planning meeting were removed from the committee, the employees wanting to be represented by AFSCME would have to "start all over" attempting to be recognized.

One request made by Schuman has been rejected, Dallas agreed. Schuman wanted to see a list of those individuals who signed AFSCME pledge cards and which are not.

Brown suggested that a third party, preferably a priest or minister, be given the cards to compare with a list of city employees. Verify that the signatures are accurate and that the union has complied with the requirement that more than 50 percent of the non-union employees have signed pledge cards. Dallas said that of the 23 persons the union would represent, approximately 19 or 20 have signed pledge cards.

Dallas said the group seeking AFSCME representation includes clerical workers, the payroll department, the treasurer's office, the city clerk's office, the air pollution control department, the engineering and building inspection office and police clerks and dispatchers.

Dallas said that while the employees do not want to negotiate a salary increase immediately, "We do not want to rule out negotiating a concrete working agreement in the future."

Schuman later Friday responded, "I don't think anybody can accuse us of dragging our feet and I don't think it is quite cricket for them to do it at this time."

America also gives each person an opportunity to develop his skills through public schools, libraries and other training and learning opportunities. America has shared its blessings by welcoming immigrants since 1892, when more than 25 million people made America their home, doubling the population of the country.

Withers said he hopes America will continue to share its blessings with others and concluded, "We must continue to share."

Karla Venarsky of North Shaw marriage as the ultimate commitment to share, reminding the Optimists of the wedding vow and its meaning. Raising a child also is a commitment to share, she said, adding, "A child raised in love and in optimism will grow up to be a valuable member of the family and of society."

Kathi Teitloff of South said everyone must share concern for teenage runaways or those who are considering running away from home. Statistics show that more than one million children run away each year. She said that if a child is not running away and should be used by those trying to find help for a child considering running. The number is 1-800-2873.

Richard Schlabach saw a commitment on America to share its ideas and talents with the rest of the world, stating, "Without sharing, this world might come some day because of constant fighting with devastating effects." The Nobel Peace Prizes are an example of encouraging people to share their talents with others for the common good, he told the club members.

"Religion, love, friendship and marriage are involved in sharing," he said, adding, "Sharing is the essence of life. We are faced not only with the choice of sharing, but the necessity of sharing knowledge, insight, from home each year and police estimate that at any given moment, there are more than 20,000 children under the age of 16 away from home because their "parents have no time for their kids."

She said there are runaways and "throwaways," whose parents have forced their children out of the house. Both kinds can be helped through runaway homes, counselors, friendship and in other ways. She said the Runaway Hotline should be given to every child who may run away and should be used by those trying to find help for a child considering running. The number is 1-800-2873.

Sean McGovern of South said we must share in the fight against drug abuse by children. He cited police statistics that one of nine youths smokes marijuana daily and the use of all other drugs, except heroin, is increasing annually. To get money to buy drugs, students are using their lunch money, stealing from their parents or even selling drugs. Sudden suffocation deaths from inhaling paints, glues or other substances from paper bags are increasing nationally, he told the Optimists.

He said parents should be aware of the symptoms of drug abuse in their children, including falling grades, truancy, poor memory and listlessness. If parents believe their children are using drugs or marijuana, they should become involved. "A child should not be abandoned in a crisis stage. We must all work hard to combat this massive, national problem," McGovern said.

Judges included the speech instructors from the two schools, Dr. Ron Michael of North and Ron Pennell of South.

Winners of the local contest will advance to the Optimist District Oratorical contest in the near future.

of Bi-State, told the gathering his agency had seen last year's law as "a tremendous opportunity" to work with the local districts to improve service. "I wonder if reinventing the wheel (dumping Bi-State) is necessary," Houghton said. "But that's your decision."

Houghton had no quarrel with the proposal to give the districts control over the state subsidies. It takes 120 days to pay Bi-State its subsidies, he said. "That presents an enormous cash flow problem for us," he said. Flinn said there isn't much time to draft legislation and get it introduced in time for consideration this session. May 1 is the deadline set by the speaker, he said.

Susan Schild, manager of the Madison County Mass Transit District, said it won't take long to draft a proposal, since the plan is only to amend the portion of the Downtown Transportation Act relating to funding.

Details discussed for citywide clean-up drive

Members of the Community Pride Committee of the Tri-City Area Chamber of Commerce met last week to make final arrangements for the area-wide clean-up drive scheduled April 25 through May 1.

Boy Scouts will be awarded patches for participating on April 25. A five day clean-up from April 27 through May 1 will follow which will cover alleys, garages, basements, industrial and business buildings, as well as city streets and city intersections.

Dan Debert, chairman of the cleanup program, has contacted all the cities' street superintendents and city street trucks will be on hand to pick up trash and debris.

Ron Ross and Jim Walla of SCA Services will be working 24 hours a day with three dumpsters to haul trash to the landfill on Chain of Rocks Road. No chemicals, paint, gasoline, oil, or other hazardous waste can be picked up.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stagg, who represent PEXAT in the program, have Channel 3 as a base station which will be used to take care of any emergencies for the full six day clean-up.

Jim Steele and Dave Eads of McDonalds have ordered 6,000 treat bags and will give out "fries certificates" to scouts taking part in the program. Walter Milton of Pepsi-Cola will also donate soda to the scouts.

Milton presented and donated four painted signs which will be hung over the streets to call attention to the Clean-up Days. Three more signs have been donated by the Granite City Canvas Co.

Randall Irwin, John Fornasewski and George Engelke will serve as judges for the Clean-up Poster Contest. Parochial and public school children in the 6-12 age group will take part in this contest.

A $100 savings bond, a $75 savings bond and a $50 savings bond will be awarded for the three best entries. Posters will be picked up the morning of April 1.

★★ AN OPEN LETTER TO ALL CITIZENS OF GRANITE CITY! ★★

Since March 15, 1977, Granite City has progressed with the establishment and continuing operation of the City Ambulance Service. We feel that this is one of the major accomplishments of the Schuler Administration. We wish to discuss with you why we feel this service is of such vital importance to our community.

FACT

Our Ambulance Service is really an "Emergency Medical Services" system. When someone calls us, he or she is not merely receiving an ambulance, but a fully trained and State Certified crew, knowledgeable in the many aspects of "on the scene" emergency care. The patient is plugged into an emergency medical "system" whereby Doctors and Nurses at the hospital are informed of the condition of the patient, the treatment rendered, and the estimated time of arrival.

FACT

Since our inception four years ago, our City Ambulance Service has assisted, treated, and transported over 14,800 patients in the Granite City area. We are proud of this achievement. We are also proud of the fact that if unexpected illness or accident strikes you or a loved one, we will be on the scene assisting in an average of 3 to 6 minutes.

FACT

We are constantly striving to better our skills for you. Seven men have become State Certified Paramedics under the City Ambulance Service. Eight of our members have been Certified as "Emergency Rescue Technicians." Four of our members are Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) Instructors. In addition many of our members have attended various seminars to better familiarize themselves with the latest techniques in emergency care.

*FACT

In 1981 Heart Attacks will claim the lives of 70 Granite City residents. 32 of these lives can be saved with a properly functioning Ambulance Service.

*FACT

In 1981 500 Granite City residents will suffer serious accidents; 22 will die, 80 will suffer lasting disability. Proper and Immediate emergency care will result in a 20-35% reduction in loss of lives and suffering.

*FACT

In 1981 100 accidental poisonings will occur in Granite City (90% in children), and 2 will die.

*FACT

In 1981 16 Granite Cityians will be seriously burned, 2 will die.

*FACT

A properly functioning Ambulance Service will show a 20-35% REDUCTION in loss of lives and productivity.

FACT

* All statistics courtesy of the American Heart Association and the Advanced Coronary Treatment Foundation; based on occurrences per 100,000 population.

Our membership is active in the community. We make many charitable contributions to needy individuals and organizations. We conduct CPR classes for the general public, and we are always available for free Blood Pressure checks. We are here to serve you both on and off duty.

In summation, we of the Granite City Ambulance Service feel that the needs of all of us as citizens will best be served by re-electing the man whose farsightedness and hard work gave us this PROGRESSIVE and VITAL City Service.

South thinciaads lost much

By TOM SCHOCKER of the Press Record-Examiner

GRANITE CITY — Good talent is always hard to replace. It might take a year or two to get it back. But Mel Bunting doesn't have that long. As the head track coach at Granite City South, he has a season to think of this one.

Losing four top seniors to graduation left a number of big gaps in 10 events for the Warriors. Spots that will be hard to fill. Positions that won't the Gateway East Conference championship meet last year for South.

Steve Adams is just an example of what the Warriors will be missing. A state qualifier in the pole vault, Adams, in the conference, won the 100 yard dash, the 300 yard hurdles, the pole vault and was on a leg of the winning mile relay team. "You just don't replace someone like that in a year," said Bunting. Bunting is taking the 1981 season with an "interesting" outlook. "In the long run, the season could turn out nice," said Bunting. "We won't score the early points like last year, but we'll be respectable." A lot of the empty events will probably be filled with underclassmen according to Bunting, but South will try and counter it with its strength in the middle and longer distances. "As you know, distance runners are as dedicated as any athlete," said Bunting. "The weather has really helped. Our times are better. But, that is subject to change. It will depend on how our younger kids perform." "They're quality underclassmen and if they mature, we'll be competitive." Whereas graduation has left some doubt in many areas, South can feel confident with its group of long distance men. The Warrior's mainstay and top pointer gether in the mile run will be Drew Geisler. A senior, Geisler presently has the tenth best indoor time in the state. This is according to the Timely Times, the track newsletter for the state. Geisler will also be running the two mile. Other milers and two miles are juniors Dave McLain and Ron Brown along with senior Jeff Taylor.

The 880 yard run will find senior Tim Dix and juniors Jim McQuade and Steve Damont gathering in the top positions. In the quicker events, senior Don Keeling will head the group of sprinters involved in the 100, 220, 440 and relay races.

Steelers sport 'new look'

By TOM SCHOCKER of the Press Record-Examiner

GRANITE CITY — Over the past few years Harry Lang has seen and worked with, basically, the same types of teams. He's known how to put them together. Lang, Granite City North track coach, will have a different looking Steeler team this year. And he couldn't be high hurdles and the 300 meter low hurdles. "We don't just have that one top runner," said Lang. "We do have a number of good position runners, too. It's just that they are not as good of quality, yet, as the front runners."

The Steelers have managed to turn, what was once a weak area of their program, into a strength. One high, a rarity of depth. Led by senior Mike Long, North's shot put group looks to be a contender among area teams. Long is accompanied by more experience in seniors Mike Jackson and Jack Tritsch. In fact, some of North's field events have moved towards improvement.

Seniors Bobby Meyer and Mike Robinson have been doing well as the pole vaulters. "I know where the points are and where they're not," said Lang. "If the people keep progressing,

Trojans have number dilemma

MADISON — It's only been a little over a week since the Madison High Trojans won their second state basketball title. And people are still buzzing about it. But, some of them have their minds on another sport. Because that spring is means baseball and the Trojans will be cranking up their season. Madison head baseball coach Bill Nichols is faced with a dilemma nearly every season — numbers. "We only 30 players on the varsity spring right now," said Nichols. "Near the end of the season, that number will probably be down to 25. What it amounts to is that everyone will be helping everybody else out. We just don't have a lot of bodies out here."

Pitching is where the Trojans need the most help. Madison doesn't have one finding three banded canvases that died that way; he says about three out of 150 birds are banded. He sent the carcasses to National Laboratories in Madison, Wis., which confirmed that the deaths were from lead shot.

Nichols said a flock as large as 3,000 birds gathered on the Horseshoe Lake ice. Because of the birds died, the large gull population descended and picked the bones clean in about two and a half hours. The specimens sent in were obtained before the gulls did their work.

Nichols is trying to persuade state officials to send four trucks to Canada to accept an offer of the Canadian Wildlife Service to give all the Giant Canadian Geese that the state will pick up.

Nichols says the Giant Canadian Goose has a tendency to take up residence permanently. In Toronto, he says, there are so many of the big birds the Canadian Wildlife Service doesn't know what to do with them. Law forbids shooting in the city.

Nichols says one truck could bring back about 450 birds. He hopes four trucks can go, to provide a "free-flying flock that will stay at Horseshoe Lake."

INSURANCE PRICE LIMITATION URGED
Illinois Insurance Director Philip R. O'Connor last week called on the General Assembly to erase the state's image as the "Dodge City of insurance pricing," by enacting legislation to permit the state insurance department to prevent excessive rates in markets where there is no competition.
Illinois is the only state in the nation without an insurance rate law of any kind, he said. Illinois consumers must now rely only on anti-trust laws to prevent unfair prices, according to O'Connor.

Community colleges to elect during November

Public community colleges have ordinarily held elections for members of their boards at this time of year. But things are different in 1981, says David L. Vlar, executive director of the Illinois Community College Trustees Association.

This year marks the beginning of a new schedule of elections in the state brought about by a recently enacted state law mandating consolidation of elections. Starting this year, community college elections will be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in each odd-numbered year.

Candidates will still file with the secretary of the local community college board or the secretary's designee; however, the actual conduct of the election now becomes the responsibility of county clerks and the city election commissions.

The terms of office for community college board members were three years previously; now state law says that those terms are to be four years.

Belleville Area College Board members whose terms expire this November are Edward O'Malley of Belleville, Elizabeth Jenner of Mascoutah, and John "Jack" Becker of Sparta. No announcement has been made by any of the three as to whether they will run for reelection.

The following election dates are in effect for 1981: Monday, Aug. 17, 1981—First day for candidates to file nominating petitions.

Monday, Aug. 24, 1981—Last day for candidates to file nominating petitions.

Wednesday, Sept. 9, 1981—Last day for candidates to withdraw.

Tuesday, Nov. 3, 1981—Election day.

Only these offices will be filled in the odd-year non-partisan elections: community college boards, school district boards, trustees of fire protection districts and officers of other special purpose districts such as cemeteries.

NURSE SCHOOL OPEN HOUSE AT JEWISH

The Jewish Hospital School of Nursing will sponsor an open house on Tuesday, March 31, from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Moses Shoenberg Memorial Nurses Residence, 306 S. Kingshighway. There is no admission charge and the public is invited.

The program is designed for persons interested in a nursing career. Tours of the dormitory and hospital will be conducted, and students and faculty members will be available to provide information. Jewish Hospital offers a 27-month program leading to a diploma in nursing.

Earliest records on bamboo slips

The earliest Chinese records, long before the invention of paper in the Second century B.C., were written on slips of green bamboo. It's easy to scratch or incise bamboo's smooth skin, unique in the plant kingdom. Bamboo books were made by stringing slips together with silk or ox sinew.

Sentencing a relief to grieving widow

By ED GURNEY
Beverly Lehman felt a sense of relief after the man convicted of a reckless homicide in the death of her husband and children was sentenced to prison last week.

"I'm glad it's over. Very glad," said Mrs. Lehman. "It's been a long time."

It was a day Mrs. Lehman, 27, had been waiting for since Dec. 31, 1979.

On that evening, Larry Lehman, 42; Nicole Lehman, 5; and Stacy Lehman, 1, all of Granite City, were killed in an automobile accident on State Aid 35. Bev Lehman was injured and hospitalized.

Arlin Davis, 51, Holiday Mobile Home, Calumet, was sentenced Monday to three years in prison on his conviction of reckless homicide in connection with the accident. Associate Judge John Day made that sentence run consecutively with a one-year sentence Davis was given last month for his conviction on a November, 1979 drunk driving charge in Collinsville.

There could be little sense of relief Monday for Davis and his family.

After the sentencing, Davis turned himself in to begin a seven-day sentence in the county jail on a conviction of resisting a police officer in connection with the Collinsville incident.

After he serves that sentence, Davis is expected to remain free on bond while his attorney, John Gitchoff of Granite City, appeals the other convictions. Gitchoff said the appeals will probably be considered by the appellate court in this fall's term.

Judge Day denied Gitchoff's motion Monday to overturn the reckless homicide conviction or grant a new trial.

Gitchoff claimed Assistant State's Attorney Keith Jensen had violated a judge's order by not telling Gitchoff the substance of the testimony of two key witnesses before the trial began last November.

That failure will be the basis for the appeal, Gitchoff said.

Gitchoff also sought unsuccessfully to have Day order an alternative sentence which would allow Davis to keep his job while spending nights and weekends in the Madison County Jail. "No, I didn't want that at all," Mrs. Lehman told a reporter later.

Gitchoff also had proposed that Davis give part of his wages to Mrs. Lehman and Larry Lehman's surviving child from another marriage. "I don't want his money," Mrs. Lehman said. "I don't want anything to do with that man."

She testified that she has overdosed twice on drugs and had two nervous breakdowns since the accident. She cried several times during the court sentencing proceedings, and left the courtroom as Gitchoff questioned Davis about his 25 years service in the Air Force and Army and brought out the fact he was honorably discharged.

Davis testified it would be a hardship to his family if he were sent to prison. He said his wife has had two heart attacks and is scheduled to undergo surgery this summer.

He said he has three sons living at home, none of whom works full-time. Davis said his job in St. Louis—to which his son drives him—would be lost.

Davis said he needs facial surgery relating to the 1979 crash but had postponed it until after his one-year job probation ends in August.

Under cross-examination by Jensen, Davis said he had been scheduled to undergo an alcohol treatment program only days after the accident.

He said he was unemployed at the time and was in a state of depression. "I don't feel I had a drinking problem, no sir," he told Jensen.

Jensen asked Davis why he had offered to buy drinks when he was returning home before the accident if he was so concerned about his bills.

Jensen also asked Davis if he would have recommended probation if his wife and children had been killed in a similar accident.

"God knows I have regretted this ever since it happened," Davis said.

emotionally. "If someone killed my wife, sir, what can I say...I think I'd have to know the person who did it. I didn't mean it."

"I'm sorry it happened," Davis said. "God knows I'm sorry."

Davis said he was not told the truth about the accident until 17 days after it happened, and went into shock. He said he has not had a drink since the accident and I don't intend to. Jensen argued in favor of a prison sentence, citing Davis' past drunk driving conviction and the need for a sentence as a deterrent.

Gitchoff said the harm could not be undone and he stressed the hardship a prison sentence would cause to Davis' family. That inconvenience "is nothing compared to the tragedy he caused," Jensen retorted.

Judge Day took 100 days off Davis' sentence for two months he spent in Scott Air Force Base Hospital and one month in Madison County Jail after the accident.

Davis would be able to get out in half of the remaining 45 months of the sentence for good behavior.

Area infant, early childhood seminar

The Tri-City Park Tabernacle is sponsoring a one day Infant and Early Childhood Seminar on Saturday, March 28, from 9:30 a.m. until 5 p.m. The workshop will be held at the church, Maryville Road and Clark Avenue.

Fetuses diagnosed
Diagnostic examinations of fetuses by ultrasound can reveal fatal abnormalities before birth. University of California researchers have found. They say measurements of the fetal head and body help detect abnormalities that might otherwise go undetected until birth.

Under the direction of Mrs. Ethelyn York, a well-known educator, the seminar is open to all people of every faith and will be strictly an educational workshop. It will be conducted by professionals in the field of child development.

Keynote speakers include Margaret Fowler and Ginny Paul, both of Rockford. The former has been teaching babies for eight years and the latter has been working with toddlers for the past six years.

Those interested in registering for the seminar may obtain information by contacting the church office, 931-4500.
